WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, April 30, 1894.
(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

Senator Hale very cleverly smoked the democrats out, and compelled Senator Harris, of Tenn., who is in charge of the democratic side of the Senate, to acknowledge that he and the rest of the democrats, except those who are dickering with the democratic "kickers", were ignorant of what concession had been or would be made, but were prepared to go it blind on the reconstructed tariff bill, whether it agreed with their sentiments or not. Was not that a remarkable confession to be made by the whilon leader of the majority side of the Senate? Commenting on the statement published that the democratic leaders were becoming more cheerful over the outlook, Mr. President, cheerful when bargaining and selling is going on instead of honest tariff legislation. Cheerful when jugglery and skullduggery take the place of open discussion, cheerful when it is the cheerfulness of a dying man, when decomposition has already set in and numbed his faculties.

No description could possibly do justice to the present disgraceful attitude of the democratic Senators. They have refused to grant hearings to honest working men and women who have come here to protest against the bread being taken from their mouths by vicious legislation, and they are to-day on their knees, not granting hearings, but taking and obeying absolutely without question the orders of the millionaire trust, as to changes to be made in the tariff bill. Mr. Cleveland and secretary Carlisle are up to their necks in this filth, while those democratic Senators who are always ready to obey the crack of the party whip are being kept in ignorance of what is going on; they have only to be told that a bill is a party measure to support it, no matter what its nature may be. Surely the workingmen will have a long score to settle with the democratic party.

A warning to newspaper publishers against lending their names and influence to be used in a business of which they know nothing and which they cannot control, contained in a bill filed in court by William R. Hearst, publisher of San Francisco Examiner, against John Wedderburn, manager of the "Press Claims Company," and the "Examiner Claims Bureau", of Washington, asking for the appointment of a receiver. Mr. Hearst says he was a partner of Wedderburn's in the "Examiner Claims Bureau" and that Wedderburn was under their contract to furnish the capital and manage the business. He charges Wedderburn with organizing and maintaining the "Press Claims Company," with money belonging to the "Examiner Bureau"; with other misappropriation of funds, including the proceeds of a note for $000 signed by the firm name without authority; with creating a large indebtedness; with refusing to return money in accordance with contracts with certain subscribers of the St. Paul Pioneer Press and the Omaha Bee, and with injuring the reputation of the San Francisco Examiner by general mismanagement and by advertising to give prizes for inventions. Some democrat—doubtless an applicant for his office—started a story that Gen. James A. Dumont, who has for many years been chief government inspector of steamboats was contemplating retirement because of feebleness caused by old age. This was a cruel lie. Gen. Dumont in denying it said: "I am just as lively and energetic as I was twenty years ago." There is only one thing the matter with Gen. Dumont. He is a republican.

Senator Quay's friends are uneasy about his condition. His health has not been good for a year or two, but it was not until recently that he began to show signs of permanent break-down. His absence at this time is very much felt by his republican colleagues in the Senate, aside from the feeling of esteem for him which makes his absence at any time a matter of regret.

Quay's so-called army is in the District of Columbia, and, barring some expected happening, they will tomorrow march through the streets of Washington, but they will not be allowed to go up on the capitol grounds as an organized body. Their camp was visited yesterday by a large number of curiously inclined Washingtonians.

The need of wider markets for American manufactures is discussed in the May Engineering Magazine (New York) by Horace Hill, as the industrial demand of the day. A liberally-illustrated article of interest on the inclined-railway systems of the world is contributed by Theodore Cooper, and one on the northern whitefish industry by Richard A. Parker. Prof. Cadbridge Davis describes the kite as a saver at sea, introducing drawings to show how kite-steering has been reduced to a science. Two important electrical articles for popular reading are presented in full on the best methods of architectural education for America. Gold and silver-mining in South America and a comparison of coal-gas and water-gas, together with the usual half-dozen editorial departments in the hands of recognized authorities, complete this unusually interesting number of the Magazine.

THE BOARD OF TRADE.

Takes Action on a Proposition of Mr. W. B. Maitland.

The Bellefonte Board of Trade met in regular session on Tuesday evening in the court house.

The communication from the Indestructible Clay Wick company, of New York, reference to which was made in Monday's DAILY NEWS, was read and, on motion, was laid on the table, their proposition and demands being deemed entirely too "rich" for Bellefonte.

A clipping from a neighboring paper was read in which a firm desiring a good location to start a glass works, etc., was desired. On motion the secretary was instructed to correspond with the party and find out just what was desired.

A blank agreement was then read which had for its object the formation of a stock company for the manufacture of the Maitland Steam and Hot Water boilers for heating private residences, etc. Last week we made mention of this move of our townsman, W. B. Maitland, who has planned and intends having patented something superior in the line of steam and hot water heating boilers. His invention is different from anything of the kind now on the market and, in addition, it will be constructed of steel, which will guarantee its lasting for many years, with the right kind of use. Mr. Maitland's idea is to organize a stock company with a capital of $12,000. To issue 240 shares at $50 per share. He thinks that with the payment of one-half the subscribed stock, or a capital of $6,000, his present shops could be so fixed up and the additional machinery necessary put in, to manufacture these boilers to advantage. His invention is also a good one because of its simplicity of construction and low cost. Where other boilers are now selling for $180, or thereabouts, Mr. Maitland feels certain his can be manufactured to sell probably as low as $100. The question was fully discussed and then, on motion, referred to the Manufacturers' committee.

Ward House Changes Ownership.

The negotiations have been finally concluded, conditioned upon transfer of the license, by which the Ward House has been sold by the estate of the late C, S. McOmber to John T. Rawley of Johnstown. The necessary papers petitioning for the license transfer were drawn up yesterday and last evening were submitted to the court, and an early decision thereon is likely.

Mr, Rawley is now in charge. He is a pleasant and affable gentleman with an unmistakable business spirit, who will bring additional energy and tact into the direction of the famous hostlery. He was formerly superintendent of the rod mill of the Cambria Iron company at Johnstown and while new at the hotel business, he is experienced at executive work. What ever improvement can be made in the house he proposes to accomplish it, though he contemplates no radical changes at present from the successful policy pursued in the past. He has associated with him in the management F. H. Benford formerly clerk at the Hulburt House Johnstown, a hotel man of large experience, and wide acquaintance with the traveling public.—Herald.

Cunningham—Gross.

At 7.30 o'clock on Wednesday morning, in the Catholic church, Rev. Father McArdle performed the ceremony according to that church, which united in marriage Mr. J. M. Cunningham and Miss Annie Gross. A large crowd of relatives and friends were present to witness the consummation of the happy event. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Carrie Gross, as bridesmaid and Mr. Harry Taylor acted as gooomsman. After an elaborate wedding breakfast served at the home of the bride, the happy couple departed on the 9.32 a. m. train for a brief honeymoon trip to eastern cities. The contracting parties are both too well known to need any words of eulogy from us. With their many friends we join in tendering them our heartiest congratulations and best wishes.

Drowned Man's Body Found.

Saturday, April 21, Denton Pickles, one of the men with Flynn's drive, fell off a log below Karthaus and was drowned. Since then men have been searching for his body and this morning it was found at Cataract, about five miles below where he was drowned. The body will be shipped to his home in Madera, Pa., for interment.

EIGHT MEN LYNCHED.

The Tragedies Occurred in Madison Parish, Louisiana.

New Orleans, April 27.—Nine men have met violent deaths in Madison Parish in the last week, and eight of these have been lynched by infuriated citizens. The last four were hanged last night, the news just reaching this city. Yesterday the Boyce assassins were hunted down by bloodhounds and finally located in the Buckhorn woods. Sheriff McClelland sent for volunteers to increase his posse and a force of 200 men finally treed the assassins in a negro cabin. The fugitives were just preparing to cross over to Mississippi, where they would have been comparatively safe. The posse surrounded the house and called for the owner to make his appearance but he refused. The posse then fired in the building, which brought the negro owner to the door. He denied that the fugitives were there, but the posse made a close survey of the premises and finally found the four darkies huddled up in a loft of a small crib in the rear of the cabin. The four were Pomp Claxton, the leaders of the assassins; Shell Claxton, Scott Harvey and McCoy. They were promptly placed under arrest and Sheriff McClelland detailed a party of twelve men to take them to Tallulah, while the sheriff and the rest of the posse started out to capture Tom Griffin, who had separated from the others. As the deputies with the four fugitives got near Milliken's Bend they were met by a mob who made an effort to take the prisoners from them. The guard resisted and succeeded in holding on to the prisoners. The guard pressed on with the fugitives until they reached the Shelby place, two miles from Tallulah. Here they were met by a crowd of 200 who overpowered the guard and captured the prisoners. The prisoners were escorted to the Crescent place where their fiendish murder had been committed, and there strung up to the limbs of several trees. Their bodies were found this morning. If Griffin is captured he will also be lynched. There are seventeen negroes in jail, all of whom will be given a regular trial and most of whom it is thought will be convicted. It has been many years since there has been a wholesale lynching in the south as that in Madison Parish, in which eighteen have been hanged.

A Deadly Generosity.

The proposition to fine the members of the National House of Representatives, who are so much engrossed in their personal pursuits of business or pleasure that they cannot attend to the duties for which they were elected, a day's pay for every day of absence evokes a counter proposition from the Philadelphia Inquirer. That journal asserts that if the fining idea is put into force the salaries of Congressmen should be raised. This is supported by the often repeated assertion that the Congressmen really cannot rub along on their present stipends of $5,000 a year.

This seems like a liberal proposition from a journal that belongs to the opposition party; but before Congress makes haste to adopt it, it should undergo careful scrutiny, as to whether it might turn out to be a gift of the Greeks. To propose to the innocent and poorly paid members of Congress that they should enlarge their compensation sounds very generous for an opposition journal; but if it should be the means of cutting the throat of the majority party it might be justly regarded as fiendish cruelty. That result would very probably follow the adoption of such a measure. In 1873 a salary grab killed more Congressmen than the preceding Credit Mobilier scandal. If the thing should be repeated when the problem with the vast majority of the American people is how they are going to live at all, and that difficulty the result of Congressional stupidity, it would be perfectly safe to predict that the political mortality among Congressmen voting for it would be something frightful. We fear that the esteemed Inquirer is offering its Congressional friends a gift that contains destruction in its ultimate results.

As to the industrious statement that Congressmen cannot rub along on $5,000 a year, it is more than probable that they cannot give ten course dinners every week or live in palaces at that figure. But there is no constitutional necessity that they should. But it is evident that if the position is not desirable any Congressman can relieve himself of the difficulty by sending in his resignation; and there is the usual marked absence of any tendency on the part of Congressmen to resign.

End of an Express War.

Agents of he United States Express have been notified that the express war existing between the United States, Adams American and National Express Companies since March 15th, has been declared off and business will be exchanged as before date. One of the features of the war was the requirement of prepay of express charges by shippers on all goods shipped into the territory of another Company, which often proved annoying and burdensome.

Woman's Greatest Enemy.

When a woman is troubled with headaches the cause should be discovered, if possible, the overwork stopped, the mental anxiety or distress removed, the errors in diet corrected, or the late hours exchanged for early ones, writes Elizabeth R. Scovil in the May Ladies Home Journal. Then a simple laxative may be needed to prepare the system to benefit by a tonic: cod-liver oil, iron, gentian, quassia, or whatever the doctor recommends as best suited to the particular case. The diet should be abundant and nourishing, avoiding rich made dishes, pastry or anything liable to disorder the digestion. Exercise in the open air, stopped before there is any feeling of fatigue, is important. When the first unpleasant symptoms are felt lie down with the head low, and take a teaspoonful of aromatic spirits of ammonia in a little water. If there is chilliness put a hot-water bag to the feet and cover warmly with a blanket. If there is nervousness and depression take half a teaspoonful of tincture of valerianate of ammonia, instead of the aromatic spirits of ammonia, and repeat the dose in fifteen minutes. Have the room darkened and endeavor to sleep.

Should these remedies not avert the attack, and the pain and nausea begin to manifest themselves, take a tablespoonful of strong tea or coffee, without milk if possible, very hot, or very cold, and repeat every fifteen minutes or four doses. If the nausea continues the sufferer usually imagines that it will be relieved by the act of vomiting, and is anxious for an emetic. This may be the case if the headache has come on immediately after eating, when the stomach contains a mass of undigested food, otherwise it is better to try to soothe the gastric disturbance and check the desire to vomit. Effervescing citrate of magnesia, iced whey or soda-water will often produce the result.

When the pain is severe a piece of linen may be dipped in alcohol and water, and a single fold bound on the forehead, wetting it as soon as it becomes dry. Sometimes a flannel wrung out of boiling water and applied as hot as it can be borne will give relief.

The Miner's Strike.

Pittsburg, May 1.—National Secretary Treasurer Patrick McBride, of the United Mine Workers of America, arrived to-day to confer with the district officials. He said that if the miners shall be defeated in the present struggle, they will strike as often as they are able until they finally secure living wages. Nothing yet has been learned as to the result of his conference with the district officers. More men will be laid off by the Pittsburg and Lake Erie railroad within the next few days and on account of the falling off in business because of the strike. The night operators at many way stations, will be compelled to quit work until the strike is ended.

The Right Medicine.

It isn't drugs or medicine that is needed at all; it is plenty of the purest air that can be had. Open the windows and doors, clean out the cellar and ventilate it thoroughly, remove the dampness, the mustiness, the ancient odor, the smell of decay, which greets the nostrils when one enters from the health giving atmosphere out of doors. Never mind if the outer air bears the gas house, the manufactory, or some other unpleasant place; it is also mingled with health and strength giving forces of nature, and is certainly better for the human system than the same air which has been shut up and contaminated for an indefinite period, with no chance for purification. Don't mind even if a little dust is brought in; dust is not half so bad as disease.

Attempt to Blow Up a Station.

On Monday night an attempt was made to blow up the brick station of the Pennsylvania railroad at Watts station, between Columbia and Harrisburg. A terrific explosion was heard shortly before midnight and hundreds of people were drawn to the place from surrounding places.

A bomb had been exploded on a window of the building. Every pane of glass was broken, large holes were put in the ceiling, the wooden blinds inside of the windows were blown off and the furniture was a total wreck. The party who threw the bomb is not known.

Girls, Look Here.

Here is a pointer for the girls of this section: "An Alabama judge has lately decided that a man who goes to see a girl twice a week, and takes her to places of amusement, etc., is legally engaged to her, whether he says anything about marriage or not, and she may recover in a suit for breach of promise."

PHILIPSBURG'S "BAD BOYS."

A True and Correct Explanation of the Disposition of This Case.

In the case of the Commonwealth against John Hobba, Thomas James, George Myers et al., there is evident misapprehension in the minds of many persons as to the facts in the case. The defendants were indicted for larceny in several cases in which the goods stolen had been returned to the prosecutors, as far as the defendants were able to return them. The defendants came into Court and, by their Counsel, proposed to waive a finding by a Grand Jury and each to plead "Guilty" in the several cases in which they had been concerned, to pay the prosecutors the full amount of their losses, to pay all the costs and, in order to enable them to do this, to have sentence suspended so that the terms could be carried out; and, if they should show by their conduct entire reformation, then the sentence to be suspended indefinitely. In support of the proposition which was made by the defendants' Counsel, the following paper signed by twenty-three citizens of Philipsburg and vicinity, including the Chief of Police, one of his Assistahts, the Grand and Traverse Jurors who were in attendance upon the Court and other persons who were present, was presented for the consideration of the Court:

April 25th, 1894.

Hon. A. O. Furst,

Dear Sir: We, the undersigned, citizens of Philipsburg and vicinity, in attendance upon the Court of Quarter sessions, would respectfully represent: That we are acquainted with John Hobba, Jonathan George, Thomas James and Charles Myers charged with larceny, etc., and heretofore have always known them to be industrious, hard-working and honest young men and, in view of their past good behavior and their good promises for the future, out of sympathy for their families and suffering parents, we would ask and recommend your Honorable Court to permit them to be released, under a suspended sentence, during good behavior, provided they pay all costs and make full reparation for all losses occasioned by them, believing thereby justice will be done and the community satisfied

All of the prosecutors in the several cases assented to the proposition made by the defendants' Counsel and requested the Court to carry out the arrangement proposed. The District Attorney endorsed upon the petition: "I, District Attorney, acquiesce in the proposition made by the defendants, that sentence be suspended during good behavior, providing all costs and charges be paid." The Court held the matter under advisement for some time and finally made an order that sentence be suspended in each of the cases until the fourth Monday of August next, each defendant being required to enter into recognizance in the sum of $200,00, conditioned for his appearance at that time. Judge Furst, in delivering the decision of the Court, expressly stated to the defendants that, if they were found drinking or indulging in any other questionable practice, they would be at once sent for and sentenced under their plea of "Guilty." This, of course, can be done at any time.

If the reformation of criminals is the object of the law, it is difficult to see how any arrangement could have been made which would more effectually have met the ends of Justice. The prosecutors are made absolutely whole as to all losses. The defendants have plead "Guilty" just as if the County had expended several hundred dollars in their trial. They are not discharged but are held subject to the imposition on the suspended sentence at any time it is ascertained that the work of reformation has not been successfully accomplished.

It was stated to the Court that one of the defendants, James Meyers, was the Boss Driver for one of the largest collieries in the neighborhood of Philipsburg. His employer had retained one of the Counsel concerned, expressly to represent him, and one of the inducements for the arrangement proposed was that this man, who was regarded as essential to the work of a colliery that was producing 1300 tons of coal per day, when the mines were at work, should be returned to duty.

The lesson taught these young men has been a very severe one. It will probably take all their savings and all that their friends can raise to pay the costs and make good the loss occasioned by their folly. The Court undoubtedly acted wisely and with sole reference to the welfare of the defendants and the general good of the community. The effort to make political capital out of the exercise of a wise discretion on the part of the Court must re-act upon those who make such an effort, inasmuch as there could by no possibility have been any political object in view. If there had been, an entirely different course would probably have been adopted.

COMMISSIONS expire in fifteen Judicial districts of the State next January and successors to the present incumbents will be elected in November. Of this number Samuel S. Mehani, in the Thirty-fifth; William McClean, in the Forty-second; John A. Sittser, in the Forty-fourth, and Daniel L. Rhone, in the Forty-fifth, alone are Democrats. The Democrats may lose Judge Mehard, of Mercer, but will surely gain in Northampton, where Judge Reeder was returned ten years ago because of a division which no longer exists. Ex-Judge Herman is likely to be opponent to Judge Sadler in the Cumberland district, who defeated him ten years ago, and the outcome is promising, but the Republicans are sure of carrying at least ten of the fifteen commissions if not eleven.

STATE COLLEGE ATHLETICS.

Result of the First Spring Handicap Held Last Saturday.

The First Spring Handicap Athletic Meet was held on Beaver Field, at State College, on Saturday afternoon, April 28th, The meets will be held each successive Saturday to get the men in shape for the great Inter-Collegiate contest which takes place May 19th. The result of last Saturday's contest was as follows:

Event No. 1, 110 yards dash—1st, White, time 11 seconds; 2nd, C. M. Thompson; 3rd, Morrow.

Event No. 2, throwing 16-lb hammer—1st, Fisher, 78 ft. 3 in.; 2nd, McLee. 64 ft. 11 in.

Event No. 6, pole vault—1st, C. M. Thompson, 9 ft. 7 in.

Event No. 7, 440 yards dash—1st, Zentmeyer (20 yards handicap) time, 55 seconds; 2nd, White.

Event No. 8, throwing 16 lb shot—1st, Fisher, 37 ft.; 2nd, Dixon, 35 ft. 11 in. (3 ft. 9 in. handicap),

Event No. 9, 220 yards hurdle—1st, C. M. Thompson; 2nd, Conrad.

Event No. 10, 1 mile run—1st, White (3 yards handicap); 2nd, Scott.

Event No. 3, 1 mile walk—1st, Price, time 8 min. 37½ sec.; 2nd, Hemphill.

Event No. 4, ½ mile run—1st, White, 2 min. 17½ sec.; 2nd, Scott; 3rd, Zentmeyer.

Event No. 4, running high jump—1st, Harder 5ft. 5 in.; 2nd, Thompson, 5 ft. 1 in.; 3rd, Leisher, 5 ft.

Event No. 5, running broad jump—1st, Cummings, 18 ft. 4½ in.; 2nd, Harder, 18 ft. 3½ in.: 3rd, Leisher.

A training table has been started at University Inn and Trainer Hoskins with his entire team are now restricted to certain articles of food which are calculated to develop the physical man.

The College ball team returned Monday from their trip through the south. While away they they played the University of Virginia and were beaten 14 to 4 but they evened things up by defeating the Washington and Lee University 10 to 5. On Saturday they for the first time played with the Franklin and Marshall team at Lancaster which resulted in a score of 4 to 3 in favor of the Lancaster college boys.

Hydrants and Their Abuse.

It is not often that a business man will give secrets of his profession for the benefit of others and injury to himself, but a plumber has done so. To a reporter he told why hydrants are injured and so frequently get out of repair. Hear him: "It is astonishing how the people recklessly impair the working of hydrants by the manner in which they stop the flow of water at such openings—the sudden, quick closing of a hydrant by which the hammering sound is produced, the effects of which does it more harm at each occurrence than a month's careful use can inflict. It is an injury to the pipes and faucets every time it occurs, and therefore people who indulge in it are expensive tenants and hard users of such accommodations. Careful use of a hydrant will maintain it in running order for years, while the carelessness to which I refer will wear it out in a few months.

—The Bellefonte band was out Tuesday evening and gave a concert in the diamond which was listened to and enjoyed by a large crowd of people. After the concert they gave a serenade to Mr. A. S. Garman, who has been a trustee of the band ever since its organization and who has also been instrumental in keeping a band here. Therefore, it must not be supposed that the boys were after the "drinks," as that was not the object. By the way, the people of Bellefonte must not forget the concert which will be given by the band and orchestra on the evening of May 30th. It promises to be a rich musical treat.

—D. W. Pletcher of Howard, is attending court as a witness this week. Mr. Pletcher is an expert surveyor of twenty years' standing and surveyed the largest batch of grounds that was ever surveyed by any surveyor in the county, taking him some five weeks to accomplish the task and the lines made by him at that time has never been disputed.

COMPLETE CESSATION OF WORK.

The Entire Coke Region Is Out With The Exception of a Few Plants.

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., April 25.—The entire coke regions with the exception of a few works is out for the first time since 1891. Most of the men who remained at work yesterday laid down their picks this morning, causing a complete cessation of all work in this section. The Cambria Iron company's men at Mahoning and Atlas, have refused to go to work, but the coke drawers agreed to draw the coke to prevent it from burning up. As soon as the coke is drawn the plant will shut down. The Dunbar Furnace company is operating the Hill Farm plant in full and the Cambria company's Wheeler works are also running, but the men will come out as soon as the mob, which is collecting at Trotter, arrives.

These companies will not take the chances of having their property burned, and will shut down when the mob arrives. The force of deputies on guard has been doubled at all the plants in this section. Committees were sent to all the Oliver plants to request the men to come out. As soon as these committees have returned and reported the mob will move on the plants that refuse to shut down.

Along the Mount Pleasant branch nearly everything is shut down. Of the twenty plants in that section only two are reported working. The men at these works say they will come out to-day.

The citizens are terrorized lest the sheriff, in carrying out his determination to disperse all mobs, meets with armed resistance. The strikers purchased large quantities of firearms and ammunition yesterday.

At Broadford last night families fled from their homes to the county residences for safety. Deputy Sheriff Richards with a large force of men has been stationed to guard the works along the Mount Pleasant branch, and has instructions to disperse all mobs.

NO STRIKE NEWS.

COLUMBUS, O., April 25.—President John McBride said this morning that he had no news from the strike of the coal miners to give out. The only information he had was that contained in the morning newspapers. The suspension has already exceeded his expectations and promise to be general in a few days. It was remarkable that the so called "river operators," who claimed that a suspension at this time of the year could not hurt them, had been the first to ask to be allowed to proceed with their work.

A telegram was received from the district south of Piedmont, W. Va., this morning, asking that an organizer be sent there. They have struck. W. B. Wilson, an organizer, who is now at Cumberland, Md., was ordered to go there and organize them.

Hon. H. N. Hysell, ex-speaker of the house of representatives, who is now a lawyer here, but was formerly a miner and president of the Ohio miners' organization, said to the United Press representative to-day that the strike was a stupendous movement and in his opinion, if the miners could not hold those in line who were already out for three weeks, they would win the fight, and he thought they could.

Ex-Confederates Meet.

Birmingham, Ala., April 25.—More than 20,000 visitors are in Birmingham to attended the fourth annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans, which convened here today. The city is gayly decorated with national and Confederate flags. All the distinguished living ex-Confederates are in attendance, as well as the governors of five southern states, viz: Governor Jones, of Alabama; Governor Turney, of Tennessee; Governor Tillman, of South Carolina; Governor Hogg, of Texas, and Governor Stone, of Mississippi. Governor Jones delivered an address of welcome in behalf of the stage, followed by Mayor Fox, who welcomed the veterans in behalf of the city.

General John B. Gordon, commander-in chief, responded eloquently in behalf of the United Confederate Veterans; then followed the enrollment of delegates and organization of the convention. Addresses were delivered by Senator Berry, of Arkansas, and General Cleman A. Evans, of Georgia.

Twenty-Fourth Sessions.

Scranton, April 25.—The Philadelphia district of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, of the Presbyterian church, opened its twenty-fourth annual session in this city this morning.

It comprises forty-nine presbyteries in six states—Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Delaware and Ohio. There are nearly 200 delegates here. Mrs. C. E. Robinson, of Scranton, made the address of welcome to the delegates, to which an eloquent response was made by the president, Mrs. C. P. Turner, of Philadelphia.

The day was largely given up to reports, the reading of papers and discussions. The report of the treasurer shows that the collections in the district during the year amounted to $145,603.90, all of which, barring a few dollars, was spent in mission work. The receipts were $5,000 less than during the previous year. The nominating committee has decided to recommend a long list of vice presidents and officers, which will be elected at a meeting of the corporation of the society, to be held in Philadelphia next Tuesday. Mrs. Turner, of Philadelphia, will be re-elected president without opposition. The convention will end then and will meet next year in Philadelphia.

The Tramp And The Law.

With all the serious depression and the wide advertising which the "Industrial armies," made up of the non-industrious, have received, their aggregate number is small. Here and there, as in Omaha, mobs of some size have collected to aid them; but the number actually on the march is trifling. Coxey's army is 200. The other "armies" are as small. All told there are not from Massachusetts to Montana, from Portland to Los Angeles, over 5000 men in these "armies."

Tramps alone are sufficiently numerous to make up these armies, and with rare exceptions vagrancy is the only industry pursued by these "industrial armies." The number of tramps in this country is very large. On single lines, like the N. Y. Central, they are known to number 900 to 1000 or over. In the aggregate through the country they reach around 100,000, perhaps more.

The Winter has been hard. Food is scarce. Tramps are fed far more at small dwellings than at large. The larder of the small dwelling has not been full this year. Tramps, by the hundred, have felt that there were more meals and better lodging in tramping as an "army" than in walking alone. The supine and criminal indifference of the authorities has made the experiment fairly successful. Breaking laws at every step, in the eye of the law beggars and vagrants, Coxey's "army" has actually marched from Ohio to the District of Columbia.

There it appears probable that the law will be enforced. It will make short work of the "army," its begging and its vagrancy. "Living on the country" is only one form of thieving. Begging is as much a crime as picking pockets. The instant the law is enforced those "armies" of tramps will dissolve into the tramps they were and this ridiculous effort to treat vagrancy as an instrument of national reform will be over.

But for the culpable weakness of Governor Pattison and the Sheriff's in the counties through which these tramps marched, the laws would have been enforced in this State. It is a lasting disgrace that they were not.

The movement begun at Chicago and New York yesterday to organize "armies" out of the unions to move on Washington by rail is the first sign which the entire movement has had of any men actually engaged in industry taking part in these "armies." With them, as with the rest, when they come to move it will be found that their thousands dwindle to hundreds and that their ranks are filled with flotsam and jetsam of labor, and with them as with the rest the law must be enforced.

Vegetable Compound
Is a positive cure for all those painful
Ailments of Women.
It will entirely cure the worst forms of Female Complaints, all Ovarian troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration, Falling and Displacements, of the Womb, and consequent Spinal Weakness, and is peculiarly adapted to the Change of Life. Every time it will cure
Backache.
It has cured more cases of Leucorrhœa than any remedy the world has ever known. It is almost infallible in such cases. It dissolves and expels Tumors from the Uterus in an early stage of development, and checks any tendency to cancerous humors. That Bearing-down Feeling causing pain, weight, and backache, is instantly relieved and permanently cured by its use. Under all circumstances it acts in harmony with the laws that govern the female system, and is as harmless as water. It removes Irregularity,
Suppressed or Painful Menstruations, Weakness of the Stomach, Indigestion, Bloating, Flooding, Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility. Also Dizziness, Faintness,
Extreme Lassitude, "don't care" and "want to be left alone" feeling, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, flatulency, melancholy, or the "blues," and backache. These are sure indications of Female Weakness, some derangement of the Uterus, or Womb Troubles.
The whole story, however, is told in an illustrated book entitled "Guide to Health," by Mrs. Pinkham. It contains over 90 pages of most important information, which every woman, married or single, should know about herself. Send 2 two-cent stamps for it. For Kidney Complaints
and Backache of either sex the Vegetable Compound is unequaled.

NEW IMPEDIMENT ARISES.

It May Interfere with the Coxey Demonstration on May 1.

Washington, April 25.—A new impediment to the Coxey demonstration in Washington on May 1 appeared today in the person of Dr. Hammett, the health officer of the District of Columbia. He will meet the Commonweal at the district lines and, if he finds any sickness among the members that is likely to breed infectious or contagious diseases, the entire force will be quarantined. A United Press reporter showed Dr. Hammett today the interview of Dr. Doty, chief inspector of the bureau of contagious diseases in New York, in which he calls attention to the likelihood that the various forces of unemployed men concentrating in Washington will carry with them the germs of smallpox, which is epidemic in several places.

"It is a strange thing," said Dr. Hammett, "that, just before you handed me this interview, I had a talk with one of my executive clerks on this same matter. He asked me what I intended to do with reference to the Coxey army and I said that I proposed to make a strict inspection of every man in it the minute they enter the district. My authority does not extend beyond the district bound arises, but if it did I would make the inspection earlier. I shall deal with the Coxey forces just as I dealt with the encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic in September, 1892, when I had twelve inspectors stationed in the camp on the White House lot during the short time the Grand Army was there.

The great danger from the Coxeyites will come when they go into camp. They will, of course, observe ordinary camp rules for health and dig trenches for the deposite of all. These trenches are great disease breeders, and it will be necessary to exercise much care to prevent pestilence. It was the duty of the twelve inspectors at the Grand Army encampment to watch the trenches, and, even with their care and though the encampment lasted but a short time, the stench at times was so strong that we feared that disease would result. I shall probably ask the district commissioners to give me extra medical aid to deal with the Coxey army.

"If I should discover among its members any contagious disease I will immediately isolate the entire force. We have a small hospital here, newly equipped, and we are prepared to deal with any pestilence that may arise. We do not propose to take any chances."

The Union of the Dealers.

The following letter written by our representative townsman, Mr. Wm. Shortlidge, who is President of the State Retail Implement Dealers' Association was published in the Implement Age for April. It is so matter-of-fact and full of sound common sense, that we publish it for the benefit of our many readers:

"I am heartily in favor of joining in any plan, right and proper, which will induce the implement men of our State to become interested and attend our meetings. One of the objects of first importance, is to become acquainted with each other. Let all understand that we are trying to build each other up instead of tearing down. The fact is, that the whole country is in such a shape just now that the smallest portion of the people are trying to build up and the largest portion of the people are trying to tear down; and it seems to me that this describes the situation in which our agricultural implement dealers have placed themselves in this State.

"I think the old adage, "Everyone for himself and the devil for all," also applies to our implement dealers. It is no easy matter to convince men who have assumed this position, of the error of their ways, because, when you talk with about eighty per cent if not more of the dealers throughout the State, they assume an air, "that they know it all and do not want to learn any more."

"I have recently been placed in a position at home which gives me more encouragement relative to thorough organization than anything that has come to my notice. We have recently had a new railroad built from Mill Hall to this place, or from this place to Mill Hall, Pa., where it connects with the Beech Creek Railroad, thence leading to a connection with the New York Central and Reading Systems. This led to the organization of the Board of Trade, the object of which is to invite manufacturers to come here and otherwise enlarge our business interest, and, as an inducement, we can say to them, that we have railroad competition. Business men in town like this, where they talk through the telephone, seldom meet each other in their business or social relations, because they remain at their place of business from early in the morning until bed time in the evening. Since the organization of our Board of Trade we have had many meetings. We meet together with one common interest. This brings us socially together, and the result is that we not only pull together for the best business interest of the town but we enlarge our social relations, and we feel that we are consolidating our interest, that we are only one family, and not a house divided against itself. The old saying is, "that a house divided against itself will fall," and so long as our agricultural implement men of this State stand divided and uninterested in each other, they cannot prosper, as they will prosper under a thorough organization and work for each other's mutual benefit.

Romola Rumblings.

After an absence of nearly a year James Boon and Jacob Brickley are again at home, where they will remain for at least three weeks.

The United Brethren church is holding a revival at Mann's school house.

Clarence Cooke has moved his shingle mill out from Howard to this place.

Farmers are glad that they did so much of their ploughing last fall.

The Mann's Union Sunday school is progressing and doing a good work, notwithstanding the report to the contrary caused by the untruthful statements made by the representative of the Magnet.

The Romola band will soon dis-band, owing to non-support of the citizens. We are very sorry for this as they certainly did make a noise.

Our Christian Endeavor is second to none in the county, or we might say the state. That is, taking all things into consideration, and we justly feel proud of it.

Amos Shank, who "blows" the bass drum in the Romola band, is at present the guest of John Mann, on Marsh Creek.

John Robb finds time to visit at Beech Creek quite often.

There will be a wedding here soon—so keep your eye on the license list.

William R. McCloskey transacted business in Bellefonte on Tuesday. "Dock" is a good fellow, only he is a democrat. In fact, he is too good a man to be in that party.

Our "unemployed" will not march to Washington, D. C., but they will march to the polls this fall and vote for "Dan" and the full Republican ticket. * * *.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a regular meeting of Encampment No 59, Union Veteran Legion, held April 26th, 1894, the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS: It has pleased the Divine Ruler to remove from our ranks by death, on February 22nd, 1894, one of our number, an honored and worthy member, Cyrus Goss, late hospital steward of the 14th Regt. Penna. Cavalry. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we bow with humble submission to Him who doeth all things well, and that we tender our heartfelt sympathies to the widow and family of our late comrade; and that the same be published in the county papers and a copy sent to the family of the deceased.

Death of John Leech.

Mr. John Leech, a well-known and much respected farmer of near Linden Hall, died on last Sunday afternoon, between 4 and 5 o'clock, of an attack of grip, after an illness of only three days. He was 69 years of age. Being a member of the Presbyterian church, his remains were interred in the cemetery at Centre Hill on Tuesday forenoon. He was a man of kind disposition and a good citizen.

The Human Electrical Forces!

How They Control the Organs of the Body.

The electrical force of the human body, as the nerve fluid may be termed, is an especially attractive department of science, as it exerts so marked an influence on the health of the organs of the body. Nerve force is produced by the brain and conveyed by means of the nerves to the various organs of the body, thus supplying the latter with the vitality necessary to insure their health. The pneumogastric nerve, as shown here, may be said to be the most important of the entire nerve system, as it supplies the heart, lungs, stomach, bowels, etc., with the nerve force necessary to keep them active and healthy. As will be seen by the cut the long nerve descending from the base of the brain and terminating in the bowels is the pneumogastric, while the numerous little branches supply the heart, lungs and stomach with necessary vitality. When the brain becomes in any way disordered by irritability or exhaustion, the nerve force which it supplies is lessened, and the organs receiving the diminished supply are consequently weakened.

Physicians generally fail to recognize the importance of this fact, but treat the organ itself instead of the cause of the trouble. The noted specialist, Franklin Miles, M. D., LL. B., has given the greater part of his life to the study of this subject, and the principal discoveries concerning it are due to his efforts.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, the unrivaled brain and nerve food, is prepared on the principle that all nervous and many other difficulties originate from disorders of the nerve centers. Its wonderful success in curing these disorders is testified to by thousands in every part of the land.

Restorative Nervine cures sleeplessness, nervous prostration, dizziness, hysteria, sexual debility, St. Vitus dance, epilepsy, etc. It is free from opiates or dangerous drugs. It is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid.

THE HARMON CASE NOW UP.

Clarence Davis and William Hanna Sentenced. Other Doings.

On Wednesday afternoon John M. Dale, Esq., presented a petition of Albert T. Buckhart for the appintment of a guardian. Also for a guardian for all the children under fourteen years of age.

The first case called was that of the Commonwealth vs. John Hubler, et al., of Philipsburg, indicted for larceny. General Beaver was attorney for the defense and he made a proposition to the Court that if the Court would suspend sentence the defendants would plead guilty. The General stated that they had all always been well behaved and respected young men, and that the crime with which they were charged was the first they had ever committed and that was done while the young men were under the influence of liquor. That if the court would suspend sentence the defendants would return to the several owners full value for all articles taken. District Attorney Singer requested a talk with the defendants before agreeing to such a disposition of the case and the court suggested a private consultation of the attorneys and the young men. A plea of guilty was afterwards entered and the court suspended sentence but held each one in $200 bail for their appearance at the August term of court. Then if they have conducted themselves properly they will be free.

Mr. Johnston, who was sued by his wife for non-support was sentenced to pay $1.50 per week, cost of prosecution and to give a bond of $300 for faithful compliance with the sentence.

The case of Commonwealth vs. Alfred Stewart was then continued.

Mrs. Melford called. Am the wife of A. Melford. Alfred Stewart came to board with me March 31. Was there the evening of April 2nd. I heard them say the night before that they had made nine dollars that day.

A. Zessinger called. I saw Stewart at my hotel on the third or fourth of April. He asked for a drink and tendered a five dollar bill in payment. It was all the money I saw him have.

Ellis Stein testified to finding a letter on Thomas street that belonged to Mr. Haupt and that was in the envelope with the money. The Commonwealth closed and there was no evidence for the defense. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty.

Commonwealth vs. William Hannah, larceny and receiving stolen goods. A nol pros was entered on the first count and defendant plead guilty to the second. Several witnesses were called to prove the case against him and Hannah was given a chance to speak in his own defense. He stated that he did not steal or help to steal the articles in question. They were brought to his house by a couple men who asked him to keep secure, but he refused to state who the men were. The court sentenced him to pay all costs, return the stolen articles and undergo imprisonment in the Western penitentiary for a period of two years.

Commonwealth vs. Clarence Davis, adultery, and Com. vs. Mrs. Ellen Redding, conspiring to commit adultery. J. C. Meyer, Esq., assisted District Attorney Singer in the prosecution and E. R. Chambers conducted the defense. The defendants were given an opportunity to tell their story after which both plead guilty. Davis was sentenced to pay a fine of $100, costs of prosecution and one year's imprisonment in the county jail.

The disposition of the case against Mrs. Redding was held over until later in the week, by the request of her husband, who offered to take her back.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. George Harmon and wife was then taken up. J. C. Meyer also assisted the district attorney in this case and Clement Dale and Ira C. Mitchell conducted the defense.

THURSDAY MORNING.

The much-talked of case against the Harmon's was the first on the list this morning. Clement Dale, Esq., one of the attorneys for the defense, stated to the court that this case has been so much talked of and paraded through the public press and been so overdrawn and magnified that it would seem almost impossible that any juior who might sit on the case had not been more or less prejudiced against the defendants. And he therefore proposed that if the Commonwealth would change the indictment from felonious assault to merely assault, a plea of guilty would be entered and thus save both time and cost. This was done and a plea of guilty was entered by both Milton Harmon and his wife, Mary Harmon.

In order to know just what was in the case an examination of some of the principal witnesses took place, as follows:

Milton Harmon was the first one called. He said: Have lived in Spring township four years; was born in Dauphin county where I lived twenty years; moved from there to Centre county, and the last move was to Mike Weaver's where I was arrested. Was married twice; my first wife died two years before my second marriage. This defendant is not my child, they tell me he belongs to Jacob Krouse. I first saw him when he was a little baby. Mr. Spangler, of Dauphin county, said if we would take him he would pay all expenses until he was able to earn his own living. We sent it to school and treated it as one of our own family, he went to school at Axe Mann. I am a blacksmith, and ran a custom shop of my own until last spring. I tried to treat the child all right; did not abuse it. The injury to his lip was caused by a fall on a stone. The injury to his back was done at school. I got a note from the teacher that he was hurt and had better be kept at home till he got well. The doctor said his hand should be tied until he got well to keep him from scratching his sores. I plead "guilty" because I thought it was no use to take up the time of the court. He was 8 years old when he came to my place; he was well then. Miss Twitmire sent him to school every day until within the last six months since which time he has not been able to go. Dr. Byman was our physician. He fell on his head on the ice; he was not afraid of me. The dog bit him in the ear. I said I took him to Lewistown because I thought they had no business with the matter. I said what I did to officers because I did not want them to see how poor I was. I did not see the boy during the day at all, as I went away in the morning at five o'clock and never returned until from seven to eleven at night.

Mary Harmon called. Live in Spring township. This boy came to our place a year last October. My husband did not abuse the child; I whipped the child when he deserved it; I treated him like all my children; I tied his hands by the doctor's orders. He had three meals a day and a lunch between times. He was covered with sores, but it was not my fault. I had given him all he would eat just fifteen minutes before the officers came.

H. H. Montgomery then told the story of the arrest which is too well known to need reproduction here.

Dr. H. K. Hoy called. I went to see the boy on January 20th. All I saw over the child was an old horse blanket. He was in such a starved condition that he might have sores all over his body.

Dr. Seibert called. Was called to see George Harmon on January the 20th; first saw him at the office of John B. Linn, and afterwards went to see him at the poor house. He was in such a condition that he would not have lived long if he had remained where he was—his condition was due to bad surroundings. I do not think he has any hereditary taint of syphilis in his system.

George Harmon called. Am nine years old. Was hurt with a club by Milton Harmon. The sore on my back came from mamma cutting me with a corn cutter; did not give me anything to eat when I was tied; was tied in the cellar with no clothing on. Milton Harmon cut me on the leg with a corn cutter. Other witnesses called were Mary Mayes, John Rote, Aaron Mallory, John Hazel, Reuben Haupt, Mrs. Sophia Daugherty and Dr. Emerich, all of whom testified to the ill-treatment of the child and the bad condition it was always found in.

The next case taken up was that of Commonwealth vs. Ed. C. Rowe. District Attorney Singer, J. C. Meyer and W. G. Runkle for the Commonwealth and Gen. Beaver, W. F. Reeder and E. R. Chambers attorneys for the defendant. The case is still on trial as we go to press.

The Rowe Case Disposed Of—All the Proceedings in Detail.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Ed. C. Rowe, was the first on the list on the convening of court Thursday afternoon.

Sarah Furl, the prosecutrix was the first witness called. She testified to being a resident of Boggs township and a daughter of Samuel Furl. She is eighteen years old and only ordinary looking. She has made her home with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Witherite, ever since she was three years old. Witness told how she occasionally made trips to Bellefonte to sell honey and other produce and to make various purchases. She was in Bellefonte three times during the year 1893—once in March, again in April and then in August. When she was here in March she came alone, bringing honey to sell. She visited several houses and stores and sold some of her honey and then alleges she visited the store of Mr. Rowe, finding him there alone. The defendant did not say he would buy any honey but wanted to show me his furniture, as he keeps a large furniture store. We looked through the two rooms on first floor, said the witness, then he took me to the basement. He asked my name and said his was Brackbill. He then took liberties with me. Afterwards I went to another store, bought a dress and went home on the Snow Shoe train, I did not tell at home what had occurred. I came to Bellefonte again in August and went in and told the defendant what he had done, but he said very little. My child was born December 19th, 1893, The defendant is the father of my child. I never had anything to do with any one else. No deviation on cross-examination.

Clara Witherite called and sworn. I live with my mother in Boggs township. Sarah Furl makes her home with us. She often came to Bellefonte with produce for sale. I stay at home most of the time; was at home in March when she came to town with honey for sale. She left home about seven o'clock in the morning and returned at half-past six in the evening. When she came home she brought a dress she had purchased. She was in Bellefonte no other time I know of until in April. When she returned on March 18th she seemed to be in trouble. When she got up in the morning she looked as though she had been crying.

Clara Furl called and sworn. Am a sister of Sarah's and sixteen years old. I live with my parents in Boggs township. I came to Bellefonte with Sarah last August. We came on the train. We stopped at Rowe's in the afternoon when on our way to the station. The defendant was there and my sister talked to him. I did not hear what they said as they talked very low.

Mr. William McClure called. Live in Bellefonte. Have known Mr. Rowe four or five years; he is married and has a family.

Commonwealth rests.

The defense was opened by E. R. Chambers, Esq., who offered information made before Justice of the Peace Green, of Milesburg.

W. F. Reeder: Was called for consultation with the defendant. Went to his store and found there Mr. Furl and Sarah Furl. Defendant asked them what they wanted and they said five hundred dollars or they would prosecute. The date the time of the affair happened was April 18. Mr. Rowe did commence prosecution for conspiracy to extort money. Was at 'Squire Green's and she said there the time was March, 1893.

Roland Wile called and sworn. Am a clerk for E. C. Rowe. To the best of my knowledge I was in the store on March 18, 1893. I go to work at 7 in the morning, go to dinner at 12, come back at 1 and remain in the store till 6 o'clock. I was in the store in August all day except when at dinner. It was on the 15th day of January when Furl and his daughter were in the store. I saw them go in and I went in after I got through loading some goods, when I think they were gone. At defendant's request, who said they would come again, I went home for dinner and hurried back. I heard them demand $500, then $300. They said if it was paid there would be no further trouble. She fixed the time as April, 1893. I was there to hear the conversation at request of Mr. Rowe.

Etta Long called. Live at Gum Stump near Sarah Furl. Went to school at Wallace Run to Ed. Hancock. I know Sheridan Lucas; saw him and Sarah Furl in a compromising position in this school house. It was on the nights of a debating society. Saw George Stanley and Sarah go into the woods together after dark. I am 16 years old.

Milliken Lucas called. Am 15 years old and live near Sarah Furl. Saw George Stanley and Sarah in a compromising position. Saw them go into the woods together after dark.

Cyrus Lucas called. Am the father of Milliken Lucas. Saw George Stanley and Sarah Furl go past my house on March 15th, 24th and 31st.

Nettie Lucas called. Sheridan Lucas did the improper act complained of in the school house before all the scholars and the teacher.

Lyda Quick called. About the 16th of March I saw George Stanley and Sarah Furl go into the woods together. It was after dark. The woods are just above Mr. Longs.

Ed. Quick called. Sarah Furl said to me at the depot that she believed George Stanley was the father of her child.

Sarah Eckley testified to knowing Sarah Furl and seeing her on the same day she got a prescription filled at Parrish's drug store.

Dr. Parrish testified as to the date of filling said prescription as May 26.

Mrs. Isabella Long testified to being present at the birth of the child.

Joshua Foulk called. I arrested Sarah Furl and her father. They wanted to settle. They said that they had known it would make such a fuss they would never have brought it.

Ed. C. Rowe called and sworn. Live in Bellefonte and am the defendant in this case. Have been married eighteen years. On January 15th two strangers came into my store and Mr. Furl said to me, "See what you have done." She said "Yes you did, d——n you. I want $500." He said, "I will take $300, if you settle this and no one will ever know anything about it." He said "you fix this up and we will get out of this." I told them to come in again after dinner and I would talk with them. I never saw the parties until they came into my store on January 15th.

Roland Wile recalled. When Mr. Rowe left the store Sarah asked me what his name was. At this juncture court adjourned until 7 o'clock. Defense closes.

At the evening session the Commonwealth offered in rebuttal the following: Samuel Furl was called and sworn. I am the father of Sarah Furl. I was not at home in September. I went up the river the first of July and was away three months. On January 15th, when we visited the defendant, there was nobody in the store but we three. She said "here is what you done." He said, "Oh, my! how much?" I said $300. The defendant said "can't you get some one to marry her?" I do not want to beat this man out of any money.

J Miles Green called. Am a Justice of the Peace at Milesburg. I issued the warrant. Mr. Runkle was there. She said she never had said it was the first of April, it was in March.

Edward Hancock called. Was the teacher of Wallace Run school last winter and winter before. Sheridan Lucas and Sarah Furl both attended the school. I did not see any improper actions or conduct between them. Have known Sarah ever since she was a child.

Daniel Iddings testified to there being snow on the ground on the 16th of March.

Sherdian Lucas called. Am 23 years old I attended school at Wallace Run the winter of 1892-'93. Was never in a compromising position with this girl; this is false.

George Stanley called. I know the Furl family a little, but not much; I know them when I see them. I was never alone with Sarah Furl and never had anything to do with her. I am not the father of her child.

This closed the evidence and the attorneys proceeds to argue the case. Gen. Beaver summed up for the defense, making a strong, logical, eloquent and very argumentative plea. J. C. Meyer made the closing argument for the Commonwealth after which court adjourned until Friday morning.

The Court this morning delivered a very able and impartial charge and the jury retired about 9.30 o'clock. They were out about three hours, when they returned a verdict of "guilty."

OTHER BUSINESS TRANSACTED.

On Thursday evening the case of Mrs. Redding was disposed of. Her husband expressed a willingness to take her back, if she would promise to go back. Mrs Redding thought she couldn't live with him but promised to go to her brother's house. The court then suspended sentence to the August term and accepted her own recognizance in the sum of $200 for her appearance at that time.

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Jacob Hazel, assault and battery, the defendant was found guilty, but recommended to the mercy of the court. Sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs.

The adultery case of the Commonwealth vs. Rudolph Watkins was next taken up.

Jeannette Anderson testified to being an eye witness to the acts of adultery committed between the defendant and Viola Watkins, wife of John Watkins.

Mrs. Rudolph Watkins: My husband had a lawsuit at Howard a year ago. I never chased him and another woman with a gun.

Mr. Robinson: Live in Curtin township. The reputation of Jeannette Anderson is not good. The talk is a good deal among the relationship.

Elizabeth Shawley also testified that the reputation of the Anderson woman was not good.

Rudolph Watkins, the defendant: Live in Curtin township. I know Viola Watkins; never committed adultery with her or any other woman. I was in the house with Mrs. Watkins, but her husband and my wife were present at the time. I never went for berries with her, but went to Howard with her once. I never said I had anything to do with her or any other woman but my wife.

Jerry Rhine: I heard the story about Rudolph Watkins and he told me it was true. He thinks some but no too much. His reputation for truth is good.

George Neff, George Johnston, Keffer Leathers, Samuel B. Leathers and Nancy May all testified that Watkins had a bad reputation for truth and veracity while that of Jeannette Anderson was good.

E. R. Chambers, Esq., summed up for the defense and Clement Dale, Esq., made the closing argument for the Commonwealth. The court then adjourned until 1.40 o'clock in the afternoon.

THE GREAT STRIKE.

President McBride Says that 165,000 Miners Are Now Out.

Columbus, O., April 29.—The air here is full of rumors of an arrangement for a national conference of miners and operators for a settlement of the great coal strike, but nothing definite is known and the national officers deny that any proposition for a conference has come from any person who could be recognized by them. They will confer with no person or no committee that does not come with full power to speak and act for the miners of all the bituminous coal fields, as there is to be no local settlements allowed. President McBride says the second week of the strike begins auspiciously for the miners. They have their forces well in hand and are receiving reinforcements daily.

Of all the 17,000 men employed in mining coal in the coke regions of Pennsylvania, 15,000 are now out. In his previous estimate he counted only 10,000 miners out in his district. Altogether of the 190,000 men employed in the United States mining bituminous coal for all purposes, 165,000 are now out participating in the strike ordered by the national convention. "When it is known," said Mr. McBride, "that the small proportion of the bituminous miners still at work is made up largely of negroes, and unskillful workmen, it can be seen that practically the whole production of coal has been informed that the miners at Broad Top, near the Maryland and Virginia line, has refused wages. These are newly organized miners and such firmness was hardly to be expected.

WEST VIRGINIA COAL MINERS.

Charleston, W. Va., April 29.—The strike situation in this section is as it has been from the start, namely, the greater part of the men are out, no trouble has occurred and none is feared. It is believed to-day that the greater part of the miners will be at work by the middle of the week in both the Kanawha and New River districts, as the operators have about determined that the strike was gotten up by the Pennsylvania and Ohio coal-operators in order to injure the interests of the operators in this territory. The miners in the Kanawha and New River regions are in extremely bad shape for a strike, and they are anxious to work and will have but little to do with the union. This week will see all at work. The miners in the Pocahontas, McDowell and Wyoming territory are at work, but a cut in the coal will be made by the Norfolk and Western railroad, which buys all of the coal. The railroad officials says that the operators shall not cut prices of mining. If they do the road will refuse to haul coal. This goes in to effect May 1.

A Queer Proceeding.

John Hobba, John George, Thomas James and Charles Myers, the burglars who committed so many depredations in and around Philipsburg, and were finally caught and held for trial, were brought before Judge Furst on Wednesday and all pleaded guilty. Strange to say, Judge Furst suspended sentence and released the prisoners on bail of $200 each, they agreeing to make full reparation for the missing goods and to appear again at August court.

The greatest indignation was felt and expressed in Philipsburg over the release of the prisioners.

The men composed a regularly organized band of robbers, and their depredations covered a period of over two years. They stole right and left, breaking into houses, henroosts, offices, stores, beer depots, the Tyrone and Clearfield railroad freight station and finally were caught through the robbery of Jones & Co's hardware store, where they equipped themselves with guns and revolvers, and there is no doubt that if Myers had not been dead drunk when the officers arrested him there would have been blood shed, for he was a perfect walking arsenal.

To send these desperadoes back to Philipsburg after all the damage and fright they have inflicted on the community is going a little too far. The men deserved the severest punishment and we are surprised that they did not get it.

Thursday Messrs. Allen Somerville and Albert Watson, whose stores were robbed by the gang, called on Attorney Crosby, who detended them, and asked how his clients proposed to restore their property. At first Mr. Crosby said as their stores were in Clearfield county and the action was brought in Centre he could not consider their claims, upon which Messrs. Somerville and Walton threatened to have the burglars arrested and taken to Clearfield for trial, and will do it if their stolen goods are not paid for. Mr. Crosby has promised that restitution shall be made.—Philipsburg Ledger.

Gems of Thought.

Live with wolves and you will learn to howl.

He that doth what he will doth not what he ought.

People of good sense are those whose opinions agree with ours.

To be really and truly independent is to support ourselves by our own exertions.

It would puzzle an onion to understand what there is about a rose that people like.

To lie about a man never hurts him, but to tell the truth about him sometimes does.

Intellect without judgment is what ails about one-half the smart people in this world.

It is not so much for the love of the world that we seek it as to escape our own companionship.

Let friendship creep gently to a height; if it rush to it, it may soon run itself out of breath.

It is easier to enrich ourselves with a thousand virtues than to correct ourselves of a single fault.

An Injunction Granted.

State Councilor William T. Kerr, of Pittsburg, of the Junior Order United American Mechanics of Pennsylvania, has carried his crusade against nuns teaching in the public schools, into Cambria county. It will be remembered he led the movement in the celebrated Riverside public school case of Pittsburg where five nuns were compelled to retire from the public schools. Saturday his attorneys, Hon T. H. Baird Patterson and A. D. Wilkins, of Pittsburg, and H. W. Storey, of Johnstown, and himself, appeared before Judge Barker, at Hollidaysburg, Blair county, where the Judge was holding special session in place of Judge Bell, of Blair county, and presented an application for an injunction After a hearing the Judge ordered a preliminary injunction to issue and set Thursday, May third, at ten o'clock a. m., at Ebensburg, Cambria county, as the time and place to hear argument for the continuance of the injunction. This prevents the nuns from teaching in the schools unless the injunction is dissolved.

From a legal stand point and in point of interest to the public, this contest will be one of the most celebrated of the day.

Killed Stealing a Ride.

Lancaster, Pa., April 30.—An east bound freight train on the Pennsylvania railroad was wrecked near Downingtown last night and a west bound train ran into the wreck, nineteen cars in all being wrecked. Samuel Houck, of Bareville, this county, who was stealing a ride, was instantly killed, and J. H. Stauffer, of Harrisburg, a flagman, seriously hurt.

WELL ATTENDED.

Interesting Sessions Held in Huntingdon Saturday and Yesterday.

Huntingdon, Pa., April 29.—The sessions of the annual convention of the Young Men's Christian association of the Altoona district, comprising several counties in Central Pennsylvania, were held in Huntingdon yesterday and to-day. F. H. Cota, of Bellefonte, conducted the devotional exercises in the Lutheran church Saturday morning, and H. J. Aukerman, of Altoona, led the Bible reading. The entire time of the morning session was consumed in organization and the transaction of some other business.

Edward Biddle, of Tyrone, opened the afternoon service with prayer and Superintendent Patton, of the reformatory here, told "How to Organize in Small Towns." G. C. Lewis, of Lewistown, read several Biblical quotations. The question, "What Is Being Done for Young Men at Organized Points, at Unorganized Points, and What More Can Be Done?" was intelligently answered by C. E. Hurlburt, of Pittsburg.

The Saturdry evening exercises consisted of a song service, led by M. G. Hammell, of Altoona; state work, by C. E. Hurlburt; testimony meeting, by Superintendent T. B. Patton.

On Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock members of the association were detailed to the various churches in town to conduct services. M. G. Hammell, Altoona, and A. H. Leach, of Osceola, occupied the Lutheran church; H. E. McKonkey, Columbia, Edward Biddle, Tyrone, Reformed church; W. B. Moore, Altoona, G. C. Lewis, Lewistown, Mr. Beaver, Lock Haven, First Methodist church; J. E. Sample, Columbia, W. M. Miller, Altoona, Second Methodist church; T. B. Patton, Huntingdon, J. Dripps, Derry, J. O. Baird, Altoona, Baptist church; A. J. Aukerman, Altoona, F. H. Cota, Bellefonte, Presbyterian church. At the United Brethren church a covenant meeting was conducted by G. C. Lewis.

A meeting solely in the interest of women was held in the Baptist church at 4 p. m. and led by C. E. Hurlburt, and at the same hour a meeting for men was conducted by A. J. Aukerman in the Second Methodist Episcopal church.

At 7.30 p. m. a largely attended union meeting was held in the Presbyterian church, in which a number of members took an active part.

Upwards of 100 delegates from a distance are in attendance, and together with the 135 members of the home association, the number of active workers is considerable and the amount of good work accomplished very apparent. Every meeting is attended by hundreds of the town's people.

Pat's Great Wonder.

We are surrounded by dangers all the way from the cradle to the grave. "The great wonder is," as Pat says, "that after getting out of our cradle, we live long encugh to reach our grave." Thousands are out of health-morose, morbid and miserable, because they do not avail themselves of the remedy within reach of them. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery would cure them.

For all chronic or lingering Cough, Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Bronchitis, Shortness of Breath, Asthma and kindred ailments, it is a most potent remedy. It cleanses the blood, invigorates the liver, improves digestion, and builds up both flesh and strength. Dose small and pleasant to taste. Large bottles, one dollar. Of all druggists.

Getting Rid of Rats.

An Ohio farmer, writing to the American Agriculturist, says: "On the barn floor I placed a thirty-six gallon kettle filled half full of rye. A plank six feet long led from the floor to the top of the kettle. The rye was left in the kettle for about a fortnight, until the rats had become thoroughly familiar with the kettle and were making it the headquarters for their nightly revels, with seeming confidence that no harm was intended, when very treacherously, one evening, water was substituted for the grain, and a half-inch of chaff from the barn floor concealed the water. The result was that twenty-one drowned rats were forked out the first morning and sixty-two within a week, and after that no rats were seen for a year.

An Imperative Duty.

What greater duty is possible than the care of our health? Until recently it has been impossible for persons living at a distance from large cities to obtain the best medical advice without great expense. This is now obviated so that the poorest persons, in any part of the land, may consult the great medical authority on nervous and chronic diseases, free of charge, and without leaving their homes. Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th Street, New York, the most successful specialist in curing all nervous and chronic diseases has lately adopted the plan of giving the sick everywhere consultation and advice by letter correspondence, free of charge.

Write him a description of your complaint and he will return you an exact explanation of your disease, with advice as to its cure, entirely free of charge. He gives most careful and explicit attention to all letters and will make your case so plain to you that you cannot fail to understand exactly what ails you. Dr. Greene is the discoverer of that wonderful cure, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. He uses nothing but harmless vegetable remedies in his treatment. What sufferer can resist such an opportunity as this to regain health and strength? Write him about your complaint and you will never regret it.

St. Nicholas for Young Folks, which has already given its readers so many good things this year, will follow the first chapters of Howard Pyle's new serial story which began in April, with a serial story by Molly Elliot Seawell, to begin in May. It is a tale of the early days of the American navy, and its title is "Decatur and Somers."

REGIMENTAL REUNION.

Meeting of the Survivors of the Two Hundred and Eighth Regiment.

A grand reunion of the Two Hundred and Eighth regiment, Pennsylvania volunteers, will be held at Newport Tuesday, May 15, to which all veteran soldiers and the public are cordially invited.

General James A. Beaver, ex-governor of Pennsylvania; Colonel Thomas J. Stewart, secretary of internal affairs, and his deputy, Major Isaac B. Brown, have already signified their intention of being present. His old comrades all hope to have Major Alexander Bobb present, too.

A street parade will take place at 1 o'clock p. m., composed of all old soldiers in attendance, Post 297, Grand army of the Republic, and several secret societies of Newport, with any of their visiting brethren present.

A public campfire will be held in the evening, in Centennial hall, when addresses will be delivered by the distinguished guests present and others, including an address of welcome by a citizen of Newport.

Orders for excursion tickets on the Pennsylvania railroad system may be had by applying to D. W. Gantt, Newport, Pa.

An Introduction to the Queen

Is an honor conferred upon only a favored few. But every lady of the land may have ready access to the Queen of Remedies-Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. On known, always a valued friend. It promises to positively cure every form of weakness peculiar to women, and confirms this promise by a written guarrantee of satisfaction guaranteed in every case, or money returned. This Royal Remedy is carefully prepared for Women only, and its effeciency is vouched for by countless happy homes and countless thousands of testimonials. A trial will convince you that it is invaluable in correcting all irregularities and weakness for which it is designed.

Messers Allen and Sachtleben, the two young American students who made a bicycle tour around the world, will begin the story of their wanderings in the May number of The Century. They describe the most interesting portion of their journey, from the Bosphorus across Asia to Peking. Their strange mode of locomotion awoke the superstition of the natives of Asiatic Turkey, but their coolness and diplomacy carried them safely through every predicament. The pictures, which show many novel and interesting scenes, are from reproduction of photographs taken by the authors.

It appears that the workingmen of Michigan are rolling in some of the Cleveland clover. The labor commissioner of that State reports that of 2966 factories in that State which he has visited, 377 are wholly shut down and 572 running on short time. This means that about a third of all the factories are closed in whole or in part, in a State which was one of the most prosperous in the Union.

KILLED IN A WRECK.

A Fast Freight on the P. R. R. Breaks Down Near Tyrone.

Tyrone, May. 1.—At 5 o'clock this afternoon an east-bound freight, running fast on the Pennsylvania road, left the track at Tipton tower, a few miles west of here, inyolving one of the most disastrous freight wrecks of recent years and costing a number of human lives.

An axle broke under a car close up to the tender, and 34 cars were piled together. Most of them were loaded with coal, but there was some merchandise. Front Brakeman John Sausserman, of Altoona, was caught in the wreck and killed at his post. Harry Marks, a coal miner living at Robertsdale, Huntingdon county, was terribly smashed and will die in the hospital at Altoons, where he now is.

It is believed by the railroaders that five, and probably seven, other men are under the mountains of coal and wreckage. Some are known to be there, as their cries were heard earlier in the night: but as there has been no calls during the last few hours they are thought to be dead by this time.

The wrecking crews and a large force of extras are working desperately to recover them from the tangle of splintered timbers bent iron, coal and miscellaneous freight, but the bottom of the mass had not been reached at midnight.

There are four tracks at Tipton tower, and way has been made for passenger trains to get around the wreck.

Breckinridge Confident.

Washington, D. C., May 1.—Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge, the congressman defendant in the Breckinridge-Pollard trial, said to-day: "I start for Lexington Thursday morning, and will open the canvass Saturday afternoon at that place."

To a question as to how he regarded the reports of the formidable opposition to his renomination, he replied:

"I anticipate opposition, of course; but I am willing to trust the people of my district in this matter and will cheerfully abide by their decision. The recent case in Judge Bradley's court has been thoroughly considered by them, and it is still pending in final appeal. I do not care to discuss the verdict further at this time."

Speaking of the campaign, Col. Breckinridge said:

"I feel confident that I will be nominated and elected. I do not care to outline at present my plan of campaign, but my speeches will speak for themselves. It is my purpose if possible, to still be of use to my district and to my state in a legislative capacity, notwithstanding the mistakes, which I frankly acknowledge and ask no one to condone.

"The American people have always been generous and fair. I propose to endeavor to merit a fair and generous treatment at their hands and have confidence this opportunity to be afforded me by my renomination and re-election to congress."

$6,000 Stolen.

Wilmington, Del., May 1.—Six thousand dollars in greenbacks were stolen from the safe of the Adams Express company in the baggage car of train No. 396, on the Delaware. Maryland and Virginia railroad, near Harrington yesterday morning. The money was from the National bank of Milford to the Philadelphia National bank. When the train reached Harrington, where it stops, George Raleigh, the baggagemaster and express agent went ahead to cut off the engine. When he returned the safe had been unlocked, the money taken and the safe locked as before. A few months ago the safe was robbed of $1,000. There is no clue to the robber.

Man's Inhumanity to Himself.

The most inhuman outrages, outrages which would disgrace the savage, man perpetrates upon his own system by swallowing drastic purgatives which convulse his stomach, agonize his intestines and weaken his system. Many people constantly do this under the impression that medicaments only which are violent in their action, and particularly cathartics, are of any avail. Irreparable injury to health is wrought under this mistaken idea. The laxative which most nearly approaches the benificent action of nature is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is painless but thorough, and invigorates the intestinal canal instead of weakening and irritating it. The liver and the stomach share in the benign discipline instituted by this comprehensive medicine, whose healthful influence is felt throughout the system. Malarious rheumatic, kidney and nervous complaints succumb to it.

For sick headache and all other conditions resulting from constipation, go by the book on Beecham's pills.

FRANK HATTON DEAD.

The Ex-Postmaster General and Editor of the Washington Post Expires at 4.30 Yesterday Afternoon

Washington, April 30.—Frank Hatton, editor of the Washington Post, died at 4.30 p. m. to-day.

Frank Hatton was born in Cambridge, O., April 28, 1846. He began his journalistic career in the office of the Cadiz (O) Republican while he was still a boy. Upon the breaking out of the war of the rebellion young Hatton enlisted in the Ninety-eighth Ohio infantry, was commissioned as a lieutenant in 1864, and served throughout the war, coming out as a colonel.

In 1869 he went to Burlington, Iowa, and secured an interest in the Hawkeye, which he retained until 1874, when he was made postmaster of Burlington. In 1881 he was appointed assistant postmaster general and in 1884 succeeded General Gresham as postmaster general, in which office he served until the close of President Arthur's administration. Mr. Hatton was the youngest cabinet officer, except Alexander Hamilton, who served the government. During the period of his official career he was also connected with the National Republican, of Washington.

In July, 1885, Mr. Hatton took up his residence in Chicago and assisted in the reorganization of The Mail, of which he became editor in chief. In January 1889, he became associated with Hon. Beriah Wilkins in the ownership of the Washington Post, which, under their management, has secured a position and influence such as no other newspaper at the national capital has ever posessed.

Mr. Hatton leaves a widow and one son.

Mr. Wilkins will now assume sole control of The Post and it is announced that no change will be made in its line of policy, editorial or otherwise, which has given The Post its remarkable success.

The Great Coal Strike.

Columbus, O., May 30.—The second official bulletin was issued by President McBride, of the United Miners, this evening. The following are the principal points:

The suspension of mining has entered upon its second week and under more favorable circumstances than when first started. The army of idle mine workers now engaged in the fight number 160,000. It is now conceded that there is not over 24,000 miners at work in the entire bituminous coal fields of the country and from nearly every local and general market the cry for coal is heard. This is good news to us and indicates that the end will soon come. Already operators are offering to pay the price and in some instances more than has been demanded to get the men to resume work, but the men are true to the orders issued by the national convention and refuse to work at any price until a general settlement has been made. Since our last report there have been no desertions from our ranks, and the only change has been in our favor and this by reason of more men joining our ranks.

The Coke Strike.

Uniontown, Pa., April 30.—The coke region strikers are feeling very comfortable to-day over the closing down of the J. D. Boyd Coal company and the Crossland coke plant. This leaves but 1,300 of the 17,519 ovens in the region at work and they are under heavy guard of deputies.

Trouble is expected to-morrow when the Oliver company will begin the eviction of sixty-one families. The most alarming feature of the strike at present is the extreme destitution among the strikers.

Many of them proclaim their circumstances and boldly announce that they will either have to go to work or steal. The companies evidently recognize the gravity of the position as they fear attacks on the company stores and are placing extra guards on night and day.

A GREAT LANDSIDE.

Six Square Miles of Earth Go Into a Canadian River.

QUEBEC, April 30.—About 8.30 o'clock Friday night the inhabitants of the quiet little village of St. Alban, situated forty-five miles from here, in the county of Port Neuf, heard a terrible nose resembling the noise of thunder in the distance. The soil commencing to vibrate, a panic ensued. At the upper end of the village, some three miles from the parish church, is a curve formed by the river St. Anne, and close to the curve is a waterfall 150 feet high. The ground forming the right hand side of the fallgave way, burying a pulp wood mill which was situated underneath and blocking the course of the stream.

The stream, which was very rapid on ac count of melting snow, spread over the adjoining farms and caused the badly stayed or underminded embankment to slide into the river, ifilling it up. Seven houses situated along the river bank were carried into the river. One of them was occupied by a family named Gauties, of four persons, all of whom perished. Smoke was seen to ascend from under the ruins, showing what an awful death the occupants must have met. The gronnd which slid into the river measured about six square miles. Whole farms have been destroyed. Three bridges were carried away. The old bed of the St. Anne river runs miles from where it coursed before. People in the neighborhood of the scene are still terror stricken.

The rush of water from the Laurentian chain of mountains is tremendous during the springtime, owing to the melting of snow, and it is thought that the ground about the river bank had become honeycombed by the water. Large tracts of land with trees and vegetation have been shifted without the least disturbance, while in other places the land was completely turned over. The losses are estimated at $500,000.

Fifty Years Married.

Monday evening, April 30, the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Reeder, of Tyrone, was converted into one of gaiety and pleasure, it being the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. It was on April 30th, 1844, that Mr. Jos. L. Reeder and Miss Deborah Haupt, of Irish Valley, Northumberland county, a sister of our well known townsman, Mr. Isaac Haupt, were united in marriage by Rev. Allen Brittain, of the M. E. church. To this union three children were born, one of whom died a number of years ago. The affair on Monday evening was gotten up in secret Mr. Hugh Copelin was spokesman, while the response was made by Rev. R. H. Gilbert. It was certainly an enjoyable evening and one long to be remembered by all present, among the number being Mr. and Mrs. Haupt, of this place.

Big Fire in Shanghai.

Shanghai, April 6, via San Francisco, April 30—A tremendous conflagration on Tuesday night destroyed 1,500 houses and 2,000 bamboo huts, several hundred thousands of logs of timber and a vast amount of miscellaneousiproperty in Tung Kadoo, an important suburb of Sanghai city and just beyond the foreign concession. No lives were lost. The damage is estimated at over three-quaaters of a million sterling. For the first time in its history the foreign volunteer firemen went to work inside the native city on the invitation of the Taotai or chief Chinese magistrate.

Committed Suicide.

John McMullen, of Benore, this county, aged 58 years, hung himself last Saturday night, and was found lifeless in his shanty on Sunday morning. Letters he left behind evidenced the fact that he had contemplated the ideed for some time past. He worked at the Scotia mines and was considered an industrious and honest man, but being tired of life, owing to the hard times, concluded to end all his troubles by taking a leap into the dark. He has several respectable and intelligent relatives residing at Milesburg, who were severely shocked in receiving the sad intelligence.

Exchange Your Tickets.

There seems to be a misunderstanding regarding the exchange of tickets for Dr. Krauskopf's lecture. Therefore, we say again that all purchasers of tickets at the various stores or on the street, can get them exchanged for reserved seat tickets, without extra charge, by going to Parrish's drug store, where the chart is now open. If you have not yet bought your tickets, you should do so at once, and have them reserved, as they are going fast. One gentleman on Monday bought twenty at one time.

ACROSS ASIA ON A BICYCLE.

A Journey Undertaken by two American Students.

With no parade and scarcely themselves realizing the importance of what they proposed to do, two young American students started from New York, June 23, 1890, on one of the most remarkable journeys of the century. Three years afterward, lacking twenty days, these young men returned to New York, by way of San Francisco, Arizona, and New Mexico, having encompassed the world. They had traveled on bicycles no less than 15,044 miles, which is said to be the longest continuous land journey ever made around the world. But this was merely incidental; they were inspired by higher purposes than "record-breaking.

Messers. Allen and Sachtleben, aged twenty-two and twenty-four years respectively, were graduated from Washington University in St. Louis on June 13,1890. They had obtained a thorough theoretical college-training, and they wanted to see the practical side of life and to study the peoples of the Old World. They decided to do all of the traveling possible on bicycles, although neither one of them had ever ridden a wheel, in order to see the countries through which they passed more thoroughly, and to come into closer relation with the inhabitants. It never was their intention simply to make a "bicycle tour around the world." They were following the example of the medieval scholars who roamed afoot through Germany, France and Italy. But they were to cover a field of which their prototypes had never dreamed, and so they called in the bicycle to their aid.

The day after they received their degrees they started out on their journey, and a week later sailed for Liverpool. After they had wheeled through Great Britain, they perfected their plans for crossing Europe and Asia. The most difficult part of their journey, they well knew, would be that portion of the route which lay through western and central China and the desert of Gobi. By the kindly aid of Minister Lincoln, who endeavored to convince them of the dangers that were in the way and to dissuade them from their attempt, they obtained a special passport from the Chinese ambassador in London.

When they had seen southern Europe from a better point of vantage than a car-window, they set out from Constantinople on their long, perilous, and arduous journey. They were the first from another continent since the days of Marco Polo to cross the Chinese empire from the western boundary to the capital, Peking,—and in many places they followed close in the footsteps of the great Venetian traveler. Civilization has made but little progress in this region of the world since the thirteenth century, and their eyes rested on many of the self-same sights that awoke the astonishment of the emissary of Kublai Khan.

Messers. Allen and Sachtleben have written a graphic account of their remarkable journey from Constantinople to Peking, and this will be published in The Century, beginning with the May number. They met with many curious and startling adventures, and these they tell with a simplicity and modesty as if they were not unusual episodes in the rounding of a college education. They took more than 2500 photographs of scenery and phases of life that curious European eyes had never looked upon before, and many of these will be reproduced.

These young men served, in a measure, as the advance couriers of American progress. They bore the "stars and stripes" strapped to the handle-bars of their bicycles to people who learned for the first time of its significance.

AT NEW WONDERLAND

Uncle Tom's Cabin Presented Before a Large Audience Last Night.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" was presented before a crowded house at New Wonderland last evening by Andrew McPhee's well known company, an aggregation of superior actors. From first to last the play was well received, and it is safe to say that a better attraction for the price of admittance was never seen in Scranton.

John Dowine as Uncle Tom and litfle Eva Sinclair as Eva filled their parts admirably, as did Bessie Doyle that of Eliza. George B. Howard came up to the standard in the role of Marks the lawyer, while Miss Mattie Dowine as Topsy, the child that was never born, was simply irresistable. R. A. Fisk as Phineas Fletcher was good, as was also the balance of the cast. The singing of the Pickaninnies was greatly enjoyed by the large audience, and the performance on the whole provided most pleasing.—Scranton Tribune April 10, 1894. This company will be in Bellefonte on Saturday, the 5th, and will give a matinee in the afternoon and a double bill in the evening.

THE Berks Grangers and the Farmers' Alliance have engaged in a conference with a view to taking a share in the election of the county ticket this year and knocking out the old Court House ring at Reading. It is an old story in a new dress and if the movement takes hold like similar proceedings in the past the farmers can expect no better results. The farmers of Berks, like farmers elsewhere, are not politicians. Their days are occupied in raising good crops, looking after their broad acres and disposing of the harvests. Because they are farmers and know little or nothing of practical politics is the best of reasons to assume that the Court House ring will not worry, but should the farmers unite without respect to party and strike out on purely independent lines the ringsters will want to come to terms soon enough. If the farmers can find leaders like Judge Stitzel, Captain William G. Moore, Jacob G. Zerr, Oliver D. Shock and other grangers of that stamp they can effect reforms and bring about a change of the most salutory character. In any event, first notice has been served on the Court House officials, whom the conference charges with being ringsters, and the farmers in that conference ought to know.

RESULTED IN A GREAT FISCO.

Washington, May 1.—Jacob S. Coxey's much advertised demonstration on behalf of the Commonweal of Christ, in favor of good roads and repudiation of national obligations to pay interest on bonds, ended to day in a fizzle quite as ridiculous as the principles enunciated by the leaders of the movement. All told, about 600 men out of the originally promised 300,000 marched up the capitol hill and marched down again.

In this 600 were included all the unemployed of the capitol who would be drummed into support of the movement, after weeks of effort on the part of Coxey's local agent and encouraging speeches in the senate from Populist senators. The local contingent dispersed after the capito fiasco was over and only the original 300 marched down into the newly selected camp ground near an open sewer canal, condemned as an unhealthy resting place by the health officers, where they have been placed on exhibition by their leader, who has taken out a license to charge gate money for admission to the camp and the privilege of hearing him lecture.

Coxey himself, who studiously courted martyrdom, but was careful to shield himself from personal harm behind his wife's petticoats and the presence of his infant child, was contemptuously turned loose by the police. His burly lieutenant, Browne, who deliberately attempted a movement to force access through the capitol grounds to the steps of the capitol to sustain Coxey in his efforts to speak, and the leader of the Philadelphia contingent, Christopher Columbus Jones, who went to his assistance, both landed in the lockup, Browne with a damaged head from a police club bang and without his befeathered hat.

What Cured Him?

Disturbed, disturbed; with pain oppressed,
No sleep, no rest; what dreadful pest
Such terrors thus ensnared him?
Dyspepsia all night, all day,
It really seemed had come to stay;
Pray, guess you, then, what cured him?

It was Dr. Pierce's Golden Medicalt Discovery. That is the great cure for Headache Scrotula, Dyspepsia, Kidney disease, Liver complaint, and general debility. An inactive Liver means poisoned blood; Kidney disorder means poisoned blood; Constipation means poisoned blood. The great antidote for impure blood is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Acting directly upon affected organs, restores them to their normal condition. The "Discovery" is guaranteed to benefit or cure in all cases of disease for which it is recommended, or money paid for it will be promptly refunded.

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.

Preparations for a Noteworthy Event in Pittsburgh Next September.

Several hundred of the foremost citizens of Pittsburgh and Allegheney have organized committees to prepare for the 28th National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic in Pittsburgh during the week beginning September 10th next. This promises to be the largest and most impressive demonstration ever witnessed in Western Pennsylvania. Besides as it is now Twenty-nine years since the Civil War ended, it is not probable that the Union Veterans of that struggle will ever again be massed in such vast numbers. Already the Committee on Accommodations has secured free quarters for 40,000 men and applications for these quarters are coming in daily from Posts in every direction. The railroads last year carried 268,000 persons to the Encampment at Indianapolis, and Pittsburgh being in a more populous Territory, there is a natural expectation that this number will be exceeded.

Pittsburgh Councils have appropriated $25,000 toward the Encampment Fund and Allegheny Councils $5,000, while the people of the two municipalities are expected to subscribe $75,000 to the end that the affair may be a thorough success.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
DR. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

SURPRISING FIGURES.

The Extent of Advertising Done by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company.

Some idea of the importance of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., as a Lynn enterprise, may be estimated by the amount of advertising which is placed by them in the leading newspapers of America. Advertising is in their line one of the surest gauges by which to judge the extent of their business.

The newspaper advertising of this famous concern is all placed through the advertising agency of Pettingill & Co., Boston, and the writer recently learned while in their offices that eight tons of electrotypes were shipped by them to the newspapers in one day, all of which were advertisements of the Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Some idea of the extent of such advertising can be formed when one considers the fact that a 5-inch electrotype weighs but a few ounces, and that eight tons consists of 256,000 ounces, or an amount sufficient to furnish all the leading publications of America with more than five electrotypes each.

As a Lynn enterprise the Pinkham Medicine Co. stands in the front rank. (From the Lynn Item.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and untill the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by Cheney & Co Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address,

"Life is an ocean.
Each one has his bark.

Some have a bark they would gladly be rid of-a ceaseless, persistent determined cough! present by day, not absent by night. If you take the wings of the morning and fly to the uttermost parts of the earth, it will go with you! There is just one thing to do: begin a thorough treatment with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and the problem is solved! You will soon wonder where it is gone, and when it went! The picture is not overdrawn-colds lingering and obstinate coughs, and even Consumption, in its early stages, yield to this potent vegetable compound. Large bottles, one dollar, at druggists, and guaranteed to benefit or cure, in every case, or money returned by its makers.

PLEASANT TO THE TASTE,

pleasant in the taking, pleasant in their action—but unrivaled in their results. That fairly describes Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. In every disorder of the liver, stomach, and bowels, they give a lasting cure.

For Biliousness, Jaundice, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, Sour Stomach, and Sick or Bilious Headaches, they are the natural remedy. They're tiny, sugar-coated granules, scarcely larger than mustard seeds—a compound of refined and concentrated vegetable extracts. Put up in sealed vials, always fresh and reliable; a convenient vest-pocket remedy.

They're guaranteed to give satisfaction, in every case, or your money is returned.

BOTH HANDS AT WORK trying to ward off a cold in the Head. The surest and easiest way to do it is, by using Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It's a mild, soothing, cleansing, and healing preparation. $500 reward for an incurable case.

Fully 65,000 Miners and Workers Have Quit Work in the Keystone State.

Columbus, April 27—President McBride of the United Mine Workers, announced today that his prediction that 150,000 miners would suspend work by May 1 had been fulfilled. The first official bulletin was issued to the strikers today reviewing the situation. It is estimated that 152,600 men have suspended work.

Pennsylvania leads the fight with 55,000 men in line. The unanimity of the miners of that State has astonished the entire country. Ten strikes are credited to the coke regions, swelling the grand total in Pennsylvania to 65,000. In West Virginia 5,000 out of 9,000 miners have suspended work and three organizers are still at work there under the direction of the National Executive Board. Thomas, Farry today wired that about 500 men at three of the largest mines at the New river had gone out.

No official notice has been received of the suspensions of the block coal miners in indiana, who were not expected to join the strike until May 1. Accordingly only 5,000 strikers are credited to Indiana, but President McBride states 1,700 block coal miners should be added to that number. In Illinois 28,000 miners are idle and the organization is carrying the war into the southern part of the State. Vice President Penna and Messrs. Howells, Fahy and Crawford, of the National Executive Board, are holding successful meetings. Indications are, says President McBride, that the entire State will be idle by May 1. The 26,000 strikers in Ohio still present a solid front.

President McBride says it will be possible to win the strike without the assistance of the Pocahontas miners of Virginia, although some missionary work is being done among them and it would greatly strengthen the movement to get them out. Coal is selling in the Pocahontas field on board cars at mines at 81½ cents a ton. In Central Pennsylvania, which claims to compete with the strike at 70 and 75 cents a ton on cars at mines. The Pocahontas field is controlled by a syndicate and President McBride says it has not taken any contracts that it did not previously have, as the mining rate there has not been reduced as it was in Pennsylvania.

How Bell Got There First.

Huntingdon Pa., April 27.—Calvin Bell and McAllister Myton, of Petersburg, held judgment notes against Henry Davis Jr., for $1.019 and $1.326, respectively. Davis's real estate was already encumbered, so it was said, and in the hope that an execution against his personal property might satisfy one claim, Myton and Bell both boarded the same train and came to Huntingdon, each armed with a judgment note.

Bell is aged and Myton is about 45. From the station Myton led, with Bell lagging and crying, "Stop him!" A big crowd attracted cried "Stop thief!" Policeman Rohland, supposed Myton a fugitive, stopped him with a revolver, while Bell took the lead and got his judgment on record in the prothonotary's office before his friend was released.

Myton threatens suit. He says that being branded a thief and being supposed so by a police officer and a howling mob is all that prevented him from reaching the court house first.

The Pension Too Late.

Washington D. C., April 27.—Twenty one private pension bills passed in as many minutes tells the story of the day's work in the house. The beneficiary of the bills, an old lady of 96, totally blind, the widow of a soldier of the war of 1812, had died since her bill was reported from last Friday night's session. When it was read and about to be placed upon its passage, Mr. Taylor (Ind.) interrupted. "Never mind, Mr. Speaker," said he, "that bill can be laid aside; the old lady is dead." The members who had been chatting and laughing stopped. There was a moment of silence. The relief for which the old lady had been striving so long was at hand, but like many other congressional claims it came too late. Congress could no longer give her relief. The clerk paused and then went on reading the next bill.

Marriage Licenses.

Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by the register of Centre county during the past week:

J. Orvis Peters and Laura Scholl, both of Union township.

Irvin B. Showers and Catherine Hubler both of Centre Hall.

Frank Huffman and Laura B. Kauffman, both of Bellefonte.

Wm. F. Whileman and Lucy R. Conoway, both of Snow Shoe.

Milton H. Snyder and Ida M. Durst, both of Centre Hall.

Learn to Laugh.

Learn to laugh. A good laugh is better then medicine. Learn to tell a story. A well-told story is as welcome as a sunbeam in a sick room. Learn to keep your own troubles to yourself. The world is too busy to care for your ills and sorrows. Learn to stop croaking. If you cannot see any good in the world, keep the bad to yourself. Learn to hide your pains and aches under a pleasant smile. No one cares to hear whether you have the earache, headache or rheumatism. Don't cry. Tears do well enough in novels, but they are out of place in real life. Learn to meet your friends with a smile. The good humored man or woman is always welcome, but the dyspeptic or hypochondriac is not wanted anywhere, and is a nuisance as well.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials. Address. F. J. The Misfortunes of the Miner.

No class of men ever were more in need of friends than the miners in the bituminous coal fields. Between the operators who, to undercut one another, cut down the wages of labor, and the walking delegates, who deprive them of their wages altogether, these unfortunates have a hard time of it.

They are not, as a rule, a very intelligent class of men. They are poorly paid, they live poorly and the companies do not take proper care of them. But no one really tries to help them. The only leaders they have are the professional suckers who live upon them, and whose only idea of advancing the interests of the workman is by strikes and enforced idleness.

If they had only the sense to drive out these pestilent demagogues they could readily find a way of bettering their condition through industry and thrift. They ought to be better paid, they ought to have a great many things that they have not. But they never have gained one thing by a strike. On the contrary, every strike but leaves them worse off than before, deeper in debt and more hopeless. They need some one to show them how to enforce their rights by work and not by idleness.

Meantime it will be noted that the nominal issue in the present strike concerns the wages for mining coal, as between 35 cents and 40 cents a ton.

Emma Tressler.

Miss Emma Tressler, a daughter of Jonathan Tressler, of Harris tp., died one day last week. During the last twenty years she was a maniac and had to be kept in close confinement; her mental derangement was caused by typhoid fever. Her age was about 40 years. Her venerable father is now 94 years old and still well preserved.

VIGOROUS HEALTH FOR MEN

THE PASTILLE CURE FOR NERVOUS DEBILITY TRADE MARK

Prof. HARRIS' SOLUBLE MEDICATED Pastille

Has been put up in a proprietary form since 1878, and has been used for years prior to that time in private practice. It is no untried nostrum, of doubtful reputation, but a genuine specific for a very prevalent disease. Thousands of men, of all ages, have at some time in life brought on nervous debility and exhaustion, with organic weakness, by over brain work, excesses, too frequent indulgence or indiscretion and vicious habits, and it is to these that we offer a remedy that will, by its direct action upon the seat of the disease, stop the drain and restore the patient to vigorous health and strength.

Our method of introducing Prof. Harris' Pastille treatment is one which commends itself to all sensible persons—for the reason that we supply it upon their judgment of its value. We ask of our patrons nothing in the way of expense beyond a postal card and a two cent postage stamp. The postal card to be used in sending us their full address and the postage stamp for the letter returning the statement of their case for which we supply them with a question blank, to be filled out and an envelope addressed to ourselves for use in returning it when filled.

FREE TRIAL PACKAGE. When we receive the statement on blank we prepare eight days' treatment and forward it, by mail and prepay postage thereon—and along with the eight days' treatment we send full directions for using. The treatment in no way interferes with a person's attention to business, and causes no pain or inconvenience in any way.

We are so positive that it will give perfect satisfaction that we leave the matter of sending orders entirely with those using the free trial treatment. Having satisfied those sending for trial packages of our ability to benefit their sexual condition we feel that they are more largely interested than ourselves in continuing the use of the Pastilles. Even then we do not attempt to rob them by demanding high prices. On the contrary, we make the prices as low as possible, and the same to all. They are as follows: $3 for one month; $5 for two months; $7 for three months.

These prices secure the delivery of the Pastilles by mail. If desired by express we leave the patient to pay the charges. For over ten years we have operated our business upon this plan with satisfactory results.

We ask all persons needing treatment for any of the secret ills which come to mankind through a violation of nature's laws to send us their address on postal card or by letter and allow us to convince them that PROF. HARRIS' SOLUBLE MEDICATED PASTILLES have merit and are what they need.

THE WARRIOR'S CAVE.

Remarkable Discovery Three Miles From Huntingdon.

The Home News, of Alexandria, has the following: Among many of the natural wonders of Warrior Ridge, the discovery of a cave is the latest one. The cave is found on Peter K. Harnish's farm. 3 miles from Huntingdon. To a careless observer it has merely the appearance of a small sink hole, yet, upon a second look there may be seen a small opening in the ground.

On Saturday afternoon, April 7th, a party of young adventurers resolved to explore, if possible, this subterranean depth and with an accoutrement consisting of lanterns, ropes and a long ladder, they arrived at the place and made their preparations for the descent through the fissure into bowels of mother earth. They secured a long and heavy rope to an adjacent tree, threw the loose end into the cave, and with lighted lanterns in hand, they began their descent through a narrow and tunnel shaped hole, not more than two feet in diameter at any place. After going down in this manner about fifty feet, they at last struck terra firma or at least a solid footing, which they named first landing.

After further exploration they found that the cave's greatest depth was at least 100 feet below the surface of the earth and while only a small distance, perhaps 200 feet, was traversed owing to the lateness of the hour, they were led to believe from appearance and sound that this cave might extend for rods, even miles, and that to the explorer new and wonderful beauties would unfold to his vision but in the short space explored they found chambers 15 or 20 feet in width, irregular in outline, ceilings 30 feet in height. The stalactites hang from the ceiling like many icicles and numerous stalagmites are seen on the floors, extending upwards forming, as they met with the formations from above, arches and grottoes of wierd beauty.

We think this cave is certainly a rival of the Arch Springs cave and time may reveal it to be as worthy of interest as the far famed Mammoth cave of Kentucky.

Anyone doubting this statement may at any time secure a guide in Hartslog valley, who will be pleased to direct the incredulous to the exact spot and view the Warrior cave and verify our statement.

A Strong Company.

On Monday Hon. J. H. Holt, of Moshannon, president of the "Salt Lick Gas and Oil Company," was in Bellefonte. He is busily engaged at present in perfecting arrangements for the new company. This company, as was mentioned in a recent issue, was organized last March, at Snow Shoe, for the purpose of sinking several wells in the vicinity of Salt Lick, Clearfield county, several miles from Karthaus. An old diary recently came into Mr. Holt's posession that is interesting. In sinking a deep shaft a gas belt was struck. The gas became ignited and the ropes were burned, the derrick also was consumed and the flames arose to the tree tops. This frightened the workmen and the shaft was abandoned. It is upon this intelligence that the company was organized to prospect by sinking several deep wells in that vicinity.

Mr. Holt showed us the list of stockholders which embraces leading capitalists of this section of the state, among whom are several millionaires. Almost a thousand shares of stock at $5,00 per share have been taken at this time. Application for charter of incorporation will be made this week and in a short time operations will be begun on the ground. There is plenty of evidence from the past of oil and gas in that vicinity, but it remains to be shown whether there is sufficient for commercial purposes.

A Question of Law.

The story is told of a newly elected justice of the peace, over in Pennsvalley, dedelivering to a jury in his court the following logical charge: "Gentlemen of the jury, charging a jury is a new business with me, as this is my first case. You, as well as myself, have heard all the evidence in the case. You have also heard what the learned counsel have said. If you believed what the counsel for the plaintiff has told you, your verdict will be for the plaintiff; but if, on the other hand, you believe what the defendant's counsel has told you, then you will give a verdict for the defendant. But if you are like me and don't believe what either of them said, then I'll be d—d if I know what you will do. Constable, take charge of the jury."

Making The Plans.

Architect Cole, of Bellefonte, is now at work on the plans and specifications for the new building, which will be erected on Main street by T. H. Harmon and Proctor Myers. The architect will submit his plans to the owners of the ground next Saturday, and if satisfactory the contract will then be given for erecting the building. The new structure will be one of the handsomest in the city. It will be three stories high with the first story of the front of sandstone, and the second and third stories of pressed brick. There will be three store rooms on the first floor.—H. H. Express.

A Trout Tale.

The Jersey Shore correspondent of the Williamsport Times says that a few days ago Landlord Dunkle caught 171 trout and on Saturday he was the recipient of a basket of the speckled beauties from his friend, Mr Warfield general freight and passenger agent of the Central railroad of Pennsylvania. Among the latter lot there were six that averaged over one pound each, the largest weighing one and one-quarter pounds.

Report of the Grand Jury.

To the honorable, the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, of Centre county:

The grand inquest inquiring in and for said county, respectfully report:

We had presented to us thirty bills of indictment for our consideration and true bills returned on all. It is the opinion of this body that a number of these cases should have been settled by the justices of the peace, and should not have been brought before this inquest.

Having thoroughly examined the public buildings and grounds surrounding the same, we recommended

1st. That the outside of the court house and jail be repainted.

2nd. That the plastering in different parts of the jail has fallen off and needs repairing; that the joists under the floors of the sheriff's office and jail are in a decayed condition and should be repaired; that the platform or gallery in front of the cells of the second story is weak and unsafe and should be better supported.

3rd. That a suitable safe should be procured for the sheriff's office for the proper keeping of the books and records of the office; and, having been informed by the sheriff, that the kitchen range is worn out and worthless, that upon examination of the same we find this correct and that we recommend the purchase of a new one.

4th. That the iron and wooden guards around the shade trees be removed, and that the county commissioners require the electric light and telephone companies to paint their poles located on and around the public grounds.

5th. That we find the lightning rods on the court house and jail in an unsafe condition and should be repaired.

6th. We desire to congratulate the board of commissioners of Centre county in the tasteful improvements of the grounds in front of the court house.

W. H. MUSSER, foreman.

Wants to Enlarge His Works.

The Watchman this morning says: W. B. Maitland, proprietor of Maitland's boiler works in this place is about to enlarge his business and begin the manufacture of house heating boilers, provided he can form a stock company for the purpose of increasing his capital. We understand that he would like to build works on a much larger scale than his present plant and purposes doing so if it is at all possible.

Our men of wealth have an opportunity here to boom the town and make a profitable investment of their money; for Mr. Maitland is a practical man who has made a success of his work thus far and there can be no doubt that in a manufacturing specialty he would be just as successful. House-heating boilers are and will be in great demand and there is no reason in the world why we should not manufacture them here as well as any other place. We have land for a location, a splendid practical mechanic to guide the enterprise, money to back it and all the iron that can be used.

Has Bellefonte any money to invest for her own good? Where are the men who are always talking about possibilities yet when enterprises become possible they are not to be found? Let the Board of Trade act.

The boiler which Mr. Maitland will manufacture has a large heating surface and can be sold far cheaper than any now on the market. Bloomsburg is holding out inducements to have him locate there.

Leonard Rhone for Governor.

The Pittsburg Dispatch says: State Chairman Thompson, of the People's party, was in the city yesterday to make arrangements for the State Convention at Harrisburg next week. He said there will be a fuller representation than at any previous State Convention the party has had. As to the choice of a candidate for Governor he thought the man most likely to be nominated was Leonard Rhone, of Centre county, ex-President of the State Grange.

The party throughout the State has its eyes on Mr. Rhone. He would make a good candidate, and Mr. Thompson thought he would accept. The Northwestern Populists want Sibley, he said, and his name might be presented to the convention. He could probably have the nomination, too, if any assurance were given that he would accept and stand squarely upon the Populist platform. The Democrats might then indorse him if they wanted to.

Postal Lines In Central Pennsylvania.

The charter recently granted at the State department to the New York Postal Telegraph company at Coudorsport means that the southern and northern part of the state is to have the benefit of the Postal telegraph lines. The line will soon be extended and offices will be opened at Renovo, Lock Haven, Bellefonte and Williamsport. This makes new points competitive with the Western Union.

Cashier

Wm. E. Durgin, of the Boston Loan Co., 275 Washington Street, says: I recommend Sulphur Bitters as the very best medicine I have ever used. There is nothing like them to give an appetite, tone up the system, and do away with that languid feeling which is so frequent among those confined indoors.

HURRAH FOR "PAUL JONES!"

A Glorious Musical Treat in Store for the People of Bellefonte.

By this we don't mean Paul Jones, the ancient mariner, but Parquette's famous opera "Paul Jones," one of the best and most musical productions ever written, not excepting even "Robin Hood." This famous opera will be produced in Bellefonte in the latter part of May or beginning of June by the Bellefonte Opera Company and it already gives promise of exceeding anything ever seen on a Bellefonte stage, not excepting any professional troupe that has ever visited here. Fifty ladies and gentlemen are engaged for the occasion and rehearsals are held three nights in the week Already some of the characters are becoming very proficient in their parts and when the night for the production comes around the opera will be given with the perfection and accuracy of any company of professionals. The principal characters in the cast, so far as now selected, will be taken as follows:

Paul Jones	Lee B. Woodcock.
Rufino de Martinez	Hard P. Harris
Bicoquet	Philip D. Waddle.
Don Procadero	John Bianchard.
Bouillabaisse	James Harris
Petit Pierre	George R. Meek.
Yvonne	Miss Marie Meek.
Chopinette	Miss Kate Lundy.

From the above it will be seen that the leading parts are all exceedingly well taken, and selections for the minor characters will be made in the same careful manner. The chorus also will be unusually strong and made up of ladies and gentlemen who can sing as well as look pretty on the stage. As to the costuming, it will open the eyes of all Bellefonters to see the combination of richness and splendor which will be displayed on this occasion. Everybody wants to see it and nobody can afford to miss it. Therefore, save your half dollars for Paul Jones.

With the Angels.

Lillie May, the sweet little daughter of Dr. W. S. Harter, of State College, died on last Friday evening, about 8 o'clock. She had been ill for about four weeks, with the measles and lung fever, and not being a strong child succumbed. Her age was one year, 11 months and 10 days. She was a general favorite and her loss is a deep affliction to her parents, as well as to Dr. Harter's in Millheim where she stayed much of her time. The funeral took place on Monday forenoon, when services were held in the M. E. church by Rev. Illingworth.

EDWARD T. TUTEN.

Local Department.

—May day.

—One third of 1894 is gone.

—It is now postmaster Fortney.

—Farmers are busy getting ready to plant corn.

—The State League base ball season opens today.

—The grain fields throughout the county are looking splendid.

—J. Eldon, of Lock Haven, has been granted a patent for an Electric lock.

—The "Paul Jones" opera company had another very successful rehearsal Tuesday evening.

—The trout fishermen are still at it but the stories they tell are not near so large as they were a week or two ago.

—Telegraph instruments are being put in at some of the principal stations on the line of the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania.

—Warren Mix, the man who was shot at Driftwood on Wednesday, died on Friday, the bullet having penetrated the stomach.

—Mr. Harry From is now carrying the mail from the depot to the postoffice and vice versa, and also acting as assistant to Station Agent Hutchinson.

—When a High School student asks you to purchase a ticket for the Oratorical contest Friday evening, do so. The price is only 10 cents and the object is to furnish the library.

—The tickets for Dr. Krauskopf's lecture are going very fast and those wishing good seats had better purchase them as soon as possible. The lecture is going to be a good one and everybody seems to know it, too.

—State College is forging to the front in every particular. The latest innovation there is the organization of a press bureau, its object being to drill the students into practical newspaper work. College items of importance are sent to any and all papers desiring the same free of charge.

—Court this week is not very interesting. The trespass case of David Hunter against Jacob Harter, an action brought to compel defendant to move a line fence, took up all of Monday and Tuesday, the jury not going out until late Tuesday evening. The result was a verdict for the defendant.

—The Court seems to be in a quandary on the sentencing of the Harmons. For a wonder, there seems to be very little law just to suit that particular case, and it may be, the Judge will have to borrow some from some foreign country. While he is at it, he might as well get something a little "stiff."

—There will be a very delightful Reformed church social on Thursday evening, at the residence of Rev. M. O. Noll. All who attend will be entertained with literary exercises, including recitations, and will also be supplied with refreshments, a slight consideration being asked for the latter. Be sure to be present.

—There was quite a gathering of local politicians and his friends at the residence of General Hastings on Monday evening to meet his guests, Hon. David Martin and Col. J. H. Lambert, of Philadelphia. This is Mr. Martin's first trip to Bellefonte and it is needless to say he is charmed with its beauty and surroundings.

—The Market Committee of the Borough Counsel have issued an order directing the market to be opened for this season on Tuesday morning, May 1st, 1894. Hereafter the market will be open every Tuesday and Saturday during the summer. The market ordinance will be rigidly enforced. A full text of the same will be published later in the week.

—Sunday was a beautiful day and everybody took advandage of it to attend church at the various places of worship. A large congregation was at the Methodist church in the morning to hear the Rev. Dr. Monroe, who preached one of his old-time stirring sermons. There also were good audiences at the Episcopal church both morning and evening to hear Rev. John Hewitt preach and, it is needless to say, they were all delighted.

—"Howell" has gone to Altoona to play ball and the Times speaks of him thusly: Charles Atherton, of State College arrived last night on fast line and will play right field and catch for the Altoona club. The new man is 21 years old, 5 feet 11 inches high and weighs 180 pounds. He is a hard hitter, splendid fielder and very fast on the bases, and will be a good man for the local club. He will practice with the team to-day.

—John T. Fowler, farmer of Fowler's Station, with a pail of water undertook to furnish the aqua pura to a pet Alderny cow with a new calf on Sunday morning, and but for his good kicking propensities she would have gored him in the stomach or thereabouts. A good kick from his right foot leveled at her head prevented her in obtaining her object, but in the effort Mr. Fowler broke the big toe of his right foot, no other weapon being available, and he is now doing the limping gait, It might have been worse.

BE ON THE WATCH, SAYS HICKS.

May to Produce a Few More or Less Heavy Storms.

Here is Hicks on May weather: The month opens at the end of April's closing storm period, with storm disturbances disappearing in extreme eastern parts of the country, and cooler weather prevailing in central and western sections. An equinox of Mercury is central on the 3d and will cause cloudiness and tendency to continued drizzle. In the extreme north sleet need not prove a surprise. By the 4th decided change to warmer will develop in the west, and during the 5th to the 7th reactionary storms will pass over the country, being central about the time of the new moon on the 5th. A sharp change to cooler will follow the disturbances at this time, with strong probabilties of frost along the northern side of the country from about 7th to 10th.

From the 10th to the 14th the next regular period of change and storm. A very warm wave is apt to appear by the 11th in western regions, and during the three days next following storms of much energy and wide scope will traverse the country from west to east. Another very cool wave for the season will come in behind the storms, causing several days of much cooler weather in the country generally. Heavy rains may reasonably be expected during the last named disturbances, namely, about the 11th, 12th and 13th, during which time a series of daily storms, recurring near the same time of day, or night, for several days need not be unlooked for. Watch barometers, temperature and direction of wind; if barometer fails to rise after one storm passes, with wind still in east and south, except another storm from the west, and so on until conditions change.

The cool weather following the storms of the last period will give place to warmer, and secondary storms will appear in many places about the 17th and 18th, immediately after which the barometer will rise rapidly to a very high reading, attended by a sharp change to cooler.

From 21st to 25th falls the next storm period, during which time it will grow very warm, and many storms of rain, thunder and wind will appear. In all these disturbances the intelligent use of the barometer and correct observation of wind currents will foreshadow with much certainty the coming and the intensity of storms. About the 27th and 28th will be central the last disturbances for May, bringing fair and cooler days and nights for the closing month.

In the nature of things, May must bring more or less violence, in a meteorological way, but there is a marked absence of disturbing causes, so far as other planets are concerned. There are reasons to believe that storms will not be unusually frequent and heavy; but it will be the part of prudence to watch them all, and be prepared to take refuge from all that may carry in their cloudy folds the desolators of town and hearts and home.

An Unpleasant Experience.

Mr. Michael Kelly, a Snow Shoe coal operator, went to explore an abandoned mine for some purpose recently. Although formerly a miner, Mr. Kelley thoughtlessly neglected to take a supply of lamp oil with him, and becoming interested in his work he failed to notice that his lamp was giving out until the oil was so low that the lamp went out before he could get out of the mine. He got lost and wandered around vainly trying to find his way out. His wife was very much alarmed at his not coming home at night, and the next morning a party went in search of him, and found him in the mine, wet and hungry, but safe, and disgusted with his unpleasant experience.

Inter-Collegiate Athletic Meet.

Bellefonters who are fond of first class athletic sports will have an opportunity of witnessing the most exciting contests ever held in Central Pennsylvania when the Athletic representatives of the many Pennsylvania colleges compete on the Beaver Field at State College on Saturday, May 19. Great preparations are being made to accommodate the many visitors who are expected. Let all go and encourage the State College boys who have been fortunate enough to have the contests take place on their grounds, when for so many years Philadelphia has been the scene of these contests.

Taking a Long Drive.

Quite a jovial party, hailing from Snow Shoe, Centre county, consisting of J. J. Nolan, George Young and John Shirdon, stopped at the Miller House on Saturday evening last and remained until Sunday evening. They are on their way to Atlantic City, where they propose opening the Queen City hotel. These gentlemen are traveling the overland route, have two elegant double teams, take in the sights enroute and have a good time generally. They left our town loud in their praise of the Miller House and the courteous treatment received from the clerk, John Hartenstine.—Lewistown Free Press.

Death of Julius Seigworth.

On Sunday morning Julius Seigworth died at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr Kohlbecker, in Central City, after a lingering illness with paralysis. Mr. Seigworth was the first proprietor of the hotel now kept by Mr. Kohlbecker, but about fifteen years ago he left there and moved to Pittsburg, where he resided for a number of years, finally returning and taking up his abode with his daughter. He was aged about 68 years. A wife and a number of children are left to mourn his death.

THEY WOULD LIKE THE EARTH.

A Big Company Hunting a Location With Big Inducements.

The Indestructible Clay Wick Company, of New York, has sent to the Bellefonte Board of Trade the following letter:

Gentlemen:

"Enclosed please find Prospectus and Descriptive letter of The Indestructible Clay Wick Company, which fully explain the nature of the business which we wish to bring before you for consideration.

We desire to establish a manufactory accessible to clay fields and within easy reach of New York City.

We will require subscriptions aggregating about fifty thousand dollars, (50,000) to enable us to locate and operate works in your city.

If you decide to favorably entertain our proposition and will raise the required amount without delay, we will co-operate in establishing in your midst an industry which will be one of the largest and most profitable in the State.

Kindly oblige us with an early answer."

From a careful perusal of the prospectus which accompanied the above letter we conclude that the company have a good thing and one that will find a ready sale, but we also are of the opinion that the bonus asked is too stiff entirely for Bellefonte. Not but that the money is here, but it would be next to impossible to raise fifty thousand dollars to put out with no certainty of a return. If the company had made a fair demand the people of Bellefonte would no doubt have tried to meet it.

Court Cullings.

The jury in the case of Commonwealth vs. Rudolph Watkins, brought in a verdict on Friday afternoon of guilty. Mr. Watkins was tried on the charge of adultery. When court called Friday afternoon, however, Watkins was conspicuous by his absence, and the most untiring efforts of the police and sheriff failed to bring him to light; and, up to this writing, his location has not yet been found on the map. It is therefore very evident that Rudolph has sheedaddled, took French leave, and Sheriff Condo will be out one boarder; the Court will have one less prisoner to pass sentence upon, his bail will be out a few hundred dollars and Watkins Glenn will be minus of its most progressive resident.

On Friday The Court reduced the sentence of William Hanna from two years in the Western penitentiary to one year in the county jail.

In the civil case of M. Shires vs W. H. Musser, an action to recover 33 per cent. of premium on two insurance policies alleged to have been due the plaintiff, the jury returned a verdict for the defendant, on the ground that the plaintiff failed to show any agreement whereby he could recover.

In the case of John W. Cooke, vs. I. N. Huff & Co., an action to recover the price of a car load of coal, the jury, under direction of the court, returned a yerdict for the plaintiff, subject to hearing of testimony of defendants which, if judged sufficient, would be deemed cause for the granting of a new trial,

"Only a Jew,"

Will be the subject of Dr. Krauskopf's lecture in the opera house on Wednesday evening, May 9th. This is one of the eminent Rabbi's best and most popular lectures and it is needless to say it is a good one. Tickets for the lecture are now on sale at all the principal stores in town and are being offered by parties on the street. These tickets can be taken to Parrish's drug store next week and be exchanged for the regular reserved seat ticket. The chart will e open on Monday. Everybody should attend this famous preacher's lecture if they don't want to miss a feast of oratory and logical argument.

The "Paul Jones" Opera Co.

The "Paul Jones" opera company held a full rehearsel on Monday night and already the different characters have acquired such a degree of proficiency as is seldom seen in local talent anywhere. The most amusing dialogue, the most catchy music, the thrilling situations and climaxes make "Paul Jones" one of the most entertaining operas ever written. And the Bellefonte opera company will produce it, without flaw or blemish, in Garman's opera house on Friday evening, June 1st. Everybody wants to attend this entertainment.

To Secure Better Roads.

To secure better roads in Centre county the supervisors of the several townships have decided to hire men to work on the roads regularly during the spring, summer and autumn months. Their respective townships will be divided into districts, and a man to whom the contract of repairs is awarded will be responsible for the care of the roads in his district, and liable to any damages resulting from the bad condition of the same.

To Fill a Vacancy.

The Central Pennsylvania Telephone and Supply company held an election in Williamsport Thursday to fill the vacancy caused by the death of President H. R. Rhoads.

General Manager R. M. Bailey was elevated to the presidency, and he will also act as general manager. C. H. Chittenden, of Scranton, was elected a director to Mr. Rhoad's place,

THE "UNIVERSITY INN."

It is Formally Opened With Great Pomp and Splendor.

The new "University Inn" at the State College was formerly opened Friday night. The event was celebrated at a large and nicely served dinner, which was followed by a reception and dance. The spacious and well appointed dining hall was filled with a brilliant array of guests, who, after having enjoyed the excellent feast prepared for them by the proprietor, Mr. Westcott, were entertained by the replies to the following toasts called for by the toastmaster, Mr. James Harris, who presided at the request of the President of the Board of Directors in the absence of Ex-Governor Beaver. In his introductory remarks Mr. Harris spoke of the old Indian settlements that had been scattered around the neighborhood, a hundred years past, and called attention to the fact that the present beautiful building was situated upon one of the old and well-known Indian trails leading through this valley. He handsomely complimented the enterprise, taste and judgment of the gentlemen who had contributed to add one more attraction to the surroundings of what is now one of the finest colleges in the State; and after paying another tribute to their host he proceeded to call on Dr. Frear to respond to the toast "The University Inn." After this gentleman followed Professor Reber on "Mechanic Arts", Dr. Armsby on "The Experimental Station", Professor Thompson on "Mathematics", and John Blanchard, Esq., on the "Bellefonte Central Railroad Company." The following gentlemen were also called upon, Mr. Robert Foster, Hon. John G. Love, Col. J. L. Spangler, Mr. Kurtz, of the Centre Democrat, and Mr. Harter, of the Gazette. After the dining hall had been cleared dancing was indulged in until the special train left for Bellefonte at 11.30 p. m.

The University Inn is under the control of a Board of Directors consisting of W. C. Patterson, President; F. H. Thomas, Vice President; J. H. Potter, Secretary and Treasurer; Dr. Frear, John W. Stuart, S. M. Buck, and George L. Potter. It is lighted with electricity, is well fitted with all the modern conveniences, and surrounded on three sides by a large and beautiful piazza.

It is truly a delightful place and should be handsomely patronized by all who hope to see our Centre County Institutions flourish.

Uncle Tom is Coming.

The amusement season in Bellefonte is not to close without at least one performance of Uncle Tom's Cabin, for Manager Garman has booked for Saturday night, May 5th, Andrew McPhees grand double mammoth spectacular Uncle Tom's Cabin and Tennessee Jubilee Singers in a Bar Room, two grand plays in one night. A car load of special scenery and stage effects; thirty people in the cast; full military band and orchestra, headed by the only lady drum major in the world; traveling in our own magnificent vestibule palace cars.

There will be a matinee in the afternoon at which Uncle Tom only will be produced and to which school children will be admitted for 10 cents; adults 25 cts. In the evening the double bill will be produced and regular prices charged.

To Restore Cut Flowers.

Everyone should know that hot water will restore cut flowers that are faded, from wearing on the dress or being carried in the hand. Cut half an inch from the end of the stem and put the latter directly into boiling water; the petals will smooth and resume their beauty in a few minutes. Colored blossoms will revive the best, for white flowers are inclined to curl and turn yellow. The blossoms will keep fresh after this treatment almost as long as they would have done if freshly gathered.—Ex.

Supreme Court Decisions.

The Supreme Court to-day handed down decisions in the following cases. From Centre county, Meek vs. Meek; Reeder, Administrator, vs Stoner, Mingle vs. Rossman. From Huntingdon county, Roberts vs. Iron Car and Equipment Co.; Conschocken Tube Co., vs. Iron Car and Equipment Co.; Harris vs. Gage, all of which were affirmed. This is a good record for Judge Furst.

A Free Scholarship.

A Free Scholarship has been awarded to Centre county by the Martyn College of Gratory, Washington, D. C. Said position is open to both sexes, and may be secured through the County Superintendent. The choice must be made during the month of May. For more information call on or address Supt. C. L. Gramley.

Information Desired.

Mr. W. E. Williams, of Lock Haven, Pa., desires to know the whereabouts of one Martin Williams, a millwright by trade, who left Rote, Clinton county about nineteen years ago and has not been heard of since. He is about five feet eleven inches in height, and would now be aged about 42 years.

James Krebs Wanted.

Any one knowing of the whereabouts of James C. Krebs are requested to communicate with his father, R. H. Krebs, Lock Haven, Pa. James Krebs was last heard of at Coudersport.

PERSONAL PENCLINGS.

Mrs. Rudolph J. Schadd returned on Saturday from a brief trip to Philadelphia.

Mr. Lewis Wetzel departed this morning on a brief business trip to Greensburg.

Mr. John W. Cooke and wife of Philadelphia, are visiting friends in Bellefonte.

Editor Joe W. Furey, of Lock Haven, was recovered sufficiently to be out doors on Tuesday, the first time in six months.

Mrs. Cyrus Wasson and her daughter-in-law Mrs. Frank Wasson, of Lemont, spent Thursday shopping in Bellefonte.

General Hastings made a speech at the Grant anniversary dinner given by the Americus Republican Club, of Fittsburg, Friday evening.

Prof. George P. Bible, of the Stroudsburg State Normal School, is visiting friends in this vicinity. Prof. Bible is laboring earnestly to make his school a success.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Miles Gephart are arranging to move to Philadelphia the first of May, Mr. Gephart having received an appointment in the U. S. mint at that place.

Mrs. George Hodson, of Philadelphia, who came to Snow Shoe several weeks ago to spend the summer, was joined a few days ago by her husband, who will stay a few weeks during trout season.

Messrs. Charles R. Kurtz, of the Bellefonte Democrat, and Fred Kurtz, of the Centre Hall reporter, and Miss Dern, of Altoona, says the Tyrone Times graced the editor's sanctum on Thursday evening.

Mr. Henry Stone, who many years ago was a resident of Bellefonte, but finally migrated west, is here on a visit, taking in the many changes that have taken place since he left here near twenty years ago.

Mr. John Kenyon, of Philipsburg but who is well known in Bellefonte, has gone to Bloomsburg to assume the superintendency of the telephone exchange of that district. Mr. Kenyon is an expert electrician and will see that the patrons in that place get good service.

Rev. John Hewitt, who several years ago was rector of the Episcopal church in this place, and moved from here to Nebraska, was an arrival in Bellefonte on Friday evening. The reverend gentleman looks very little changed in the years that have passed since he was a resident in this place.

Mr. J. Miles Gephart and wife departed on the 6.20 train on Monday for Philadelphia, where they will take up their abode in the future, Mr. Gephart having received a lucrative appointment in the U. S. Mint. Mr. and Mrs. Gephart will be greatly missed by their many friends in Bellefonte and Centre county.

Mr. J. H. Bryan, of Bellefonte, visited his friends in Tyrone, Grazierville and Altoona this week. During his stay he paid this office a very pleasant visit and also made the heart of the Editor glad by renewing his subscription. Mr. Bryan is a pleasant taker and we enjoyed a pleasant half hour's chat with him—Tyrone Times.

An arrival in Bellefonte this morning was Mr. Daniel M. Musser, who came from his home in Putman county, Ohio to Centre county to visit his friends. Mr. Musser went to Ohio in March, 1861, from near Pine Grove Mills, where he then resided. W. H. Musser, of this place, went to the army in April of the same year. Prior to that time these two young men were almost inseparable, but from the time of their separation until to-day they had never met and it is not to be wondered at that they did not know each other to-day, after a period of thirty-three years has rolled around. Daniel Musser is an old soldier, having enlisted in the 60th regiment Ohio Volunteers in 1862. He was one of the fourteen thousand men compelled to surrender at Harper's Ferry in 1862. Our townsman, W. H. Musser, entertained his friend royally until the train departed for Millheim when Mr. Musser departed on it for that place to see his aged father and mother, who are still living. He will no doubt find many changes every where since his last visit to Old Centre.

Mysterious Disappearance.

The parents and friends of Jacob Mock, Jr., of Decatur township, a short distance northwest of Philipsburg, are very much exercised over his mysterious disappearance. A few days ago he left home with horse and buggy on a little trip. Saturday the horse and buggy were returned with Mr. Mock missing. The most diligent search and careful inquiry has failed to reveal his whereabouts, and it is very much feared he has met with some sad end.

AT THE STATE COLLEGE.

A Breezy Letter From That Great institution of Learning.

By a Special Correspondent.

For the past two months Dr. Atherton has been traveling in Mexico and California, visiting all the leading educational institutions of the southwest. He was shown the greatest courtesy by the official of the Department of Public Instruction of the Mexican Government and has lectured frequently during the trip. He is expected to return sometime in May.

Wednesday, April 4th, marked the opening of the closing term of the most successful year that the College has experienced since it was founded. During the year there were three hundred and sixteen students in attendance in the different departments, requiring a teaching force of forty-one professors and instructors.

The State Inter-Collegiate Athletic meet will be held on the Beaver field at the College on Saturday, May 19th. This promises to be the most interesting athletic event of the year to College men. All the colleges of the State will be represented, some of the larger ones sending full teams.

The College base ball team is on a trip to the south at present and will play several games in the Virginias before they return.

As a result of the Fresh—Sophs flag scrap on Tuesday gent's furnishing goods have advanced 20 per cent. and the supply of court plaster in town is exhausted—postage stamps being now used instead. A large Freshman with a 5-cent stamp on his neck and a black postmark under his eye, is not an uncommon right at present.

High School Junior Oratorical Contest.

The fourth annual declamatory contest for the Reynolds' prize, by the Junior Class of the Bellefonte High School, will be held in Garman's opera house, at 8 o'clock on Friday evening, May 4th. There are ten contestants for the prize and the full program for Friday evening is as follows:

To Clean Carpets.

This is the season when the fell brush of the calsominer has done its level best to destroy your carpet after you have trusted to his assurance that he will whiten your ceiling without leaving a spot. A few drops of carbonate of ammonia put into a small quantity of rainwater will prove a safe and easy antidote, and will immediately restore a carpet injured by whitewash. Indeed, if carefully applied it will change all discolored spots, whether produced by acids or alkalies.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

President Judge

In accordance with the customs and rules of the Republican party, I hereby announce myself as a candidate for President Judge of this Judicial District, subject to the action of the Republicans of the district at their nominating conventions.

John G. Love.

In accordance with the rules and customs of the Republican party we are requested to announce as a candidate for President Judge in this Judicial district the name of Hon. A. O. Furst, subject to the action of the Republicans of the district at their nominating conventions.
